WAR CRY

MICIAL GAZETTE OF THE SALVATION ARMY IN CANADA AND NEWFOUNDLAND

ational Headquarters: for Queen Victoria St., London, E.C.

Territorial Headquarte rs, James and Albert Sts., Toron

ear. No. 52.

Bramwell Booth, General.

TORONTO, SEPTEMBER 26, 1914

Price Five Cents

THE BID THE COUNTY THE THE WOOD WIGHT CAME CACCASE

Salvationist Reservists who have

ed the Colours

we instinctively go for comfort in the hour of desolation and sorrow, and from it we seldom turn away in disappointment.

We have seen the faces of the sick lighf up with Heavenly joy as they have heard their favourite Psalm read or recited. Martyrs have strengthened their faith during their last trying hours in singing or quoting Psalms.

And perhaps, in the hours of turwoil, strife, and unrest, no Psalm has been read with more pleasure than the one from which the above verse is quoted. It is certainly a very beautiful Psalm, and the first verse adds lustre to all that follows.

The Psalmist, writing, perhaps, with the thought of the destruction of Sennacharib's powerful army in his mind, and thinking of the calm reliance of Hezekiah as he spread the Assyrian king's insulting letter before the Lord in the Temple. Or perhaps he was thinking of some terrible earthquake splitting the hills with its convulsions, or churning the waters of the sea into a boiling cauldron of confusion; but through which God's people had been kept in calm assurance, trusting in the God who was the Refuge and Strength of Israel. Or, may it not have been that he was looking into the future, and seeing the difficulties which the Church of God would be called to endure, and for our enocuragement and help, wrote.

Whatever particular incident or thought he had in his mind, it is certain that the Holy Spirit used it to speak forth to all ages the great fact that to His people God is indeed a Refuge and Strength, and a present Help in trouble.

What a beautiful thought that in the fight for life we are not left to ourselves, but that our Heavenly Father is so interested in all that goes to make us happy as to place Himself as our Refuge.

In His ereation we can see how

THE CHARACTER OF GOD'S DEALINGS WITH MANN

AS INDICATED BY THE FIGURES OF SPEECH EMPLOYED IN THE SCRIPTURES

2. "GOD IS OUR REFUGE AND STRENGTH, A VERY PRESENT HELP IN TROUBLE." Ps. 46, 1.

God has provided protection for all His creatures. Everything that has enemies has suitable protection. Animals living among the rushes or long grass are often striped, and those which climb trees are spotted, while those living upon sandy plains and in torrid climes have the colour of their surroundings, thus making detection difficult. The great and all-wise Creator, in His desire for the complete happiness of His creatures, has thus provided them with a refuge, and, further, has placed a voice within them which we call animal instinct.

But it would seem that of all the creatures of His hands, none have enemies so numerous and powerful as man, and from the eradle to the grave life is one long struggle. Not only are there many forces at work for the destruction of his body, but great and terrible agencies are striving day by day for the ruin of his soul, and, while for the lower order of creation God had provided various means of protection, to man He has offered Himself, and has placed in every man a Spiritual instinct which points him to God. O that men would hearken to the oice of God in their souls as faithfully as the bee, the bird, or the beaver, which in themselves are not elever, but are faithful to the whisper of God's voice in their natures, and in the honr of danger never fail to answer by taking advantage of the protection offered

But man, it would seem, hears every other voice first, and while God offers a safe Reluge he spends a good deal of his life in trying to find some other method of safety. While deep down in his soul the voice of God calls, he seems to prefer to listen to the disquieting voices of wealth, pleasure, friendships, and worldly honours, when none of these can be of any final help, and unless he comes into the Refuge provided, destruction must follow.

And yet how wonderfully tender and long-suffering God is towards us, always reminding us of His ability and His willingness to save to the uttermost, and to keep in perfect peace those who commit themselves to His care.

Oh, how much every one of us need such a Refuge! We are en-gaged in a life-and-death struggle, in a hostile country, surrounded by every device of the devil for our destruction, being prosed hard on every side; if left to ourselves we must falter and fall, but in His loving hands we have protection and refuge,

Not only is God our Refuge, hut the inspired writer says He is our Strength. This is something more than a strong refuge. God is our Strength, supplying us with the necessary strength to get into the Refuge.

What a superior advantage. The bird's wing may lack the strength, and the heaver's ingenious retreat A DISGRACED MAN.

may be broken down by a force, and thus, their par g gone, they fall this remies. But if God box then in our monents weakness He will super and we shall be able to as

Refuge. Then with God as our l

Strength, what have we we This may fall ime the one who has made a faith, and lost heavily in of life, You are dis shamed—take heart, Gathested in you; He has no you even if you have lorged A cry He will hear to

The Psalmist also to as as being a present help in friends would help to be a absent. Precious lives has nway while help has been But there is no time else eumstance in which to render us the needed ast

To us who are the sense the verse comes with spen God is our Refuge and a and a very present Hope as "Man is born to trente sparks fly upward," and Gall always see fit to take out away, but He gives His gas He promises shall be sale Therefore, we need to Victory is ours, and so formed against us shall just Lieut.-Colons In

SCOUT SAVES GIRES!

The Territorial Organics on me an account of his Saving Scout at Pontyment ceeded in saving a school being drowned.

being drowned.

She was skipping by the arriver and by some man balanced and fell sight water. The Scott darm at her assistance, and haf he impulse he would have he after her. But he kept he had been after her. But he kept he had been after her. picking up the skieping on had fallen from the gold to throw it could be threw it out to her. In rope affoat, and the forces was able to catch hold it & pulled in safety to the last. Under the circumstants that Scout did right in set. in, for I don't think he com but I expect he work and good try if it had been says.—"The Life barry had

New Westmaster, Ri We have just had to Brigadier and Mrs. Gers gave some interesting tall Congress, and the several Congress sens we had a most interests.
"One Who Was There.

backsl

Niagara Rain On.

Vith New Zealand's Territorials

An Interesting Description of Salvation Army Work under Canvas by our own Chaplain Captains in His Majesty's Forces

By BRIGADIER WM. HOARE, Senior Chaplain

MONG other developments of The Salvation Army in the ing affectionate notes to assurance to anxious mothers and others that Dominion of the Southern Seas during the last year, there is one that stands out in its possibilities and far-reaching effects, upon The Salvation Army in its work throughout New Zealand to-day and to-morrow.

efour years ago the Government decided upon the inauguration me of Compulsory Training of its young men and boys (with approval of all political parties). Briefly the scheme may be to two sections:-

mbracing all youths ranging from fourteen to eighteen years of have to attend a stated number of drills per year, and who are senior cadets. (The public school teachers give primary in in physical drills and other exercises which prepare the way allitary instructors at the public schools.) The senior cadets sowever, called upon to attend camps.

e second section takes in all young men physically able from to twenty-four years of age, who, in addition to the attendance number of parades and drills in their own districts, are called pend nine days at least in a Territorial Camp, where their mili-netion and training are proceeded with under the direction of year, in the four large Territorial Camps that have been held, ty thousand of the Dominion's young men have been gathered

The Hope of the Nation

cally all the young men of the Dominion, "the hope of the regathered in the tented field away from home restraint and rest, and it is not to be wondered at that when Commissioner with the open door of opportunity and found that the authori-other hand were only too anxious to avail themselves of the of The Salvation Army and kindred associations, he decided

It step was the nomination of four of our Officers as Military as inllows: Brigadier W. J. Hoare, Senior Chaplain: Staffinn, Adjutants Gray and Haywood, Chaplains. The nominaaccepted as above, each were duly gazette with the rank of applain in His Majesty's force, which, I think, is the first history that this has been done in any part of the British

ig that a large number of our Soldiers and not a few Bandsing to our Corps and a still larger number of young men who sit our Halls throughout the Dominion would be in the four Commissioner caused special announcements to be made at and also issued special invitation eards, which proved most brought us into direct contact with a crowd of young men herwise would not have recognized-the Territorial uniform ast difference in the appearance of many of them—and to make a list of all the young men who came under our wing to the visit of Sir Ian Hamilton, General Oversea Inspector the whole of the Territorial Forces of the Dominion were ether at four huge camps—two in the South Island, Matarae in the North Island, Takapau and Hautapau.

ith chosen, viz.: May, was very wet, cold, wintry, and very the success of the camps, but owing to the time of the spice of the could not wisitor being so completely mapped out, they could not

Camp Lights Glitter

n was the Takapau Camp, where over six thousand men All arms of the service, infantry, mounted, artillery, resented, and helped to make up the largest camp that has d in the Dominion.

previously secured for each camp large marquees, which and splendidy equipped. It was an inspiring sight to see ins arriving, carrying thousands of bright, buoyant young in the best of health and spirits, bent on having a good time. rtunate were some others who arrived at night in drizzling er escort had to find the tent and have the number allotte stamp light's glitter. Still, there was very little grumbling litions; details had been carefully planned beforehand, ss had all tents erected ready to receive the regiments.

tion Army marquee was the first to be creetd, and was writing-tables being in great request by dutiful sonasendall was well.

Large crowds thronged the marquee nightly, and the men off duty during the day used the tent freely,

We were kept more than busy. My worthy assistant, thinking that at the camp he would have ample time for study, brought a few special books; he had also looked forward to pulling up personal correspondence, but at the end of ten days he had written one letter and the books were untouched.

We supplied free writing material. The reading tables were well patronized, Army and other reading matter being in great demand, Each evening the marquee was made bright by a real live Salvation Army meeting. There was plenty of music and singing, and portions were read from the "Soldier's Guide," and the message was well received. The men enjoyed the meeting to the full, and more than once we had to prolong it at their request. At least one young man dealt with at these meetings has since found his way to the Mercy Seat.

These gatherings were a great feature, and camp life was made brighter and more enjoyable. The evenings, at any rate, would have been dull and unprofitable without such meetings, for one can scarcely imagine six thousand men cooped up in small bell tents, eight or ten together, finding enjoyment for a fortnight without some change,

Over Boot-Tops in Mud

On Sunday morning the official Church Service is held, and every man in camp not on special duty must arrend. The Salvation Army is on the list of official services, and when the order "Salvation Army men" rang out, over three hundred Territorials stepped forward, and, headed by the 17th Regimental band, kindly granted for the occasion, marched to the selected spot, and listened to the Bible-reading and addresses by Ensign Garner and myself. It was a fine sight that first beautiful morning. The playing of the Band, the hearty singing by the men, and their reverent attitude revealed two things-first, the lads have a deep reverence for God's Word; second, they hold The Salvation Army in great respect. At night we had a crowded marquee, and a very fine meeting

In ease any think it must have been quite a pienic in camp, and ieture us with beautiful weather all the time and few discomforts, f had better mention a few facts which will show up the other side of the picture. In all we spent thirteen days in camp, and nine of them were very wet. The roads were terrible; we were over our boot-tops in mud every time we crossed the path from the marquee. It was very cold, winterly weather throughout, the two exceptions being the Sunday beforementioned and the occasion of the visit of General Sir Ian Hamilton, when the weather was gloriously fine.

A Struggle with a Tent

Then we had a cyclone that swept over the Dominion visit us at the camp at 2 a.m., levelling every large marquee in the camp, our own included! It was a great sight to see men out of their tents everywhere, fighting with ropes and in many cases trying vainly to save their tents going over. We struggled to save ours, and certainly my assistant and myself ought to shine as gymnasts after that eventful struggle, for we were lifted off our feet again and again, whilst the side poles swung round like Indian clubs. We tied ropes, drove in pegs, until we were exhausted, but a final blow and our efforts went for nothing, for our beautiful marquee, sixty-six feet by thirty feet, was blown down. Quite exhausted we took refuge for an hour or two in a large iron shed used as a picture theatre. Next day, with the willing assistance of a number of the men, our tent was up again, but a return visitation the following day brought it down once more; but, not to be beaten, we raised it again and it stood to the end of the camp!

After the manocuvres, Ensign Garner and the writer were personally introduced to General Sir Ian Hamilton, Inspector-General, also to General Godley, the officer commanding His Majesty's Forces in the Dominion. Both spoke most appreciatively of the work accomplished by The Salvation Army in the camp, and wished us every success in our efforts. General Godley sent a special message of appreciation of The Army efforts at each of the camps to Commissioner Richards.

The document containing the tabulated reports from the Chaplaine charge of our marquees at the various eamps now lies before me it speaks well for the effort. Close upon twenty thousand r are recorded at the marquees, forty-seven meetings we by 9.625. Letters posted in our marquees number reaching effects of the whole undertaking ne-

THE WEEK'S BEST STORY

SELECTED FROM THE ARMY'S PRESS

SHOT THROUGH HIS GUERNSEY SALVATIONIST CORPORAL IN SCOTS GUARDS IMPRESSES

APTAIN WARWICKER tells of a Leaguer who was a corporal on active service with the Scots Guards through the South

"It was during one of the little meetings that we were privileged to have, when a few Leaguers met together, that Frank was attracted by the experience of those who declared that they possessed a Salvation that made them 'more than conquerors. He sought and found deliverance. In addition to his active service kit. our comrade carried a supply of Army song sheets, and when occasion arose he was able to arrange a minature Army meeting. Although dubbed by his fellows a Bible puncher,' he on more than one occasion proved to his officers that his religion was practical, inasmuch as he was commended for his bravery,

"While nearing a kopje with an advance party, our comrade received a bullet wound, and was left for dead, the bullet passing through his Army jersey. But Frank recovered his senses and manaced to crawl back to camp. His life in hospital proved the reality of his Salvation, and his presence was a rebuke to sin: a letter to me, written at this time, he said, 'If a man comes out with a bad word, he says," Excuse bae, corporal."

"The sequel to this came a few weeks later, at the close of one of my neetings among the troops on the field. I had occasion to pass the general commanding the Division General Rundle), with his staff, and when near him the general stepped out, inquired the result of the meetings, and also the whereabouts of our contrade. His consistent conduct had reached the ears of his commanding officer. To-day Frank Secretary in a London Corps,-"Under the Colours."

WHAT HE MADE.

More Than Could Be Reckoned,

A prosperous liquor seller was boasting to a group of men in the bar, of the amount of money he had made.

Said he: "I have made two hundred pounds the last three months." "You've made more than that," quietly remarked a listener,

"What is that?" he responded. "You have made my two sons drunkards. You have made their mother a broken-hearted woman, You have made much more than I can reckon but you'll get the full ac-count some day."—Australian "Cry."

But a Visit to The Army Meant a New Start.

> Recently a man came seeking assistance, who, it transpired, had been a Christian, but had backslidden some years ago. He had been in a good position for over twenty years, but had been tempted to commit a theft, for which he received a sentence of nine months. On release from each he sold his home to meet the pressing needs of his wife and family, and looked for work. Herc, however, he was unsuccessful. His untimely dismissal by his previous employer left him without a reference, and he soon found himself reduced to a state of extreme indigence. Under the strain of the disgrace he had brought upon wife and family, and his own penuriousness, he decided to commit

As the Officer dealt with him, he was reminded of brighter days in the past, and hope revived. Instead of taking his life, he cried to God for mercy, and found life more abundant in Christ Jesus.

He was given temporary assistance, and was soon earning his living once again. He was re-united to his wife and family, and is now endeavouring to make amends for the misspent years of his wandering from God.—"The Victory."

The falling water in an electric from their falling water in an electric fountain for table decoration that a Boston min has anyented supplies a specially at sunty men to power for thandows the power for Boston man has invented supplies, the nower for changing the color of

RS ABOUT INTERESTING PEOPLE

Halifax I. Band at Windsor, N. S. ALIFAX No. I. Band, under the leadership of Nightingale, . Bandmaster accompanied by Adjutant Byers, spent the week-end Windsor, N. S., where Captain and Mrs. Laurie are in charge. The week-end services were opened by a rousing open-air service on Satur-day night, followed indoors by a Musical Festival by the Band. On Sunday afternoon the Band held five open-air services, which were much appreciated by the public at the further end of the town.

The Sunday night meeting was conducted by the Adjutant, and the Hall was not large enough to hold the people who wanted to get inside.

Festival in Public Park.

After the evening meeting the Band occupied the Band Stand in the public park and gave a musical festival. Despite the inclemency of thousand people assembled to listen II. Band's visit to Cornwall we had to the music given by the Band, Adjutant Byers and Ensign B. [Turner, of the Halifax Immigration

Department, both gave addresses from the stand.

The week-end resulted in a huge

The week-end resulted in a ling success, and we rejoice over four souls elaiming Salvation. Much credit is due to Adjutant Byers on the way in which he laboured the whole week-end—G, Gormley, Band Control of the state of the salvation of the sa

Two Western Bands at Leduc.

On Labour Day, Sept. 7th, the Wetaskiwin and Strathcona Bands

united and visited Leduc, a little

Prayer Subjects.

1. Pray for those who are engaged

4. Pray for those who deal with the great problem of the unemploy-

And for all who suffer temporar-lly by reason of the war.

Daily Bible Topics.

SUNDAY, Sept. 27.—Paul Before the Governor. Acts 23:25-35;

MONDAY, Sept. 28.—Convicted But

ed and needy at this critical time.

Correspondent.

to their hearts.

everywhere,

town about half-way between the two Corps.

The Wetaskiwin Band arrived first, and welcomed the Strathcona Band at the depot. The Bands then formed up, and, in spite of the rain and muddy streets, we had several good marches and open-airs. A kindgentleman stepped up and placed the Baptist Church at our disposal, which was much appreciated by the Bandsmen.

The afternoon and evening serrice atternoon and evening services were well attended, and finances were good. The day closed with three souls at the Mercy Seat.

--Cadet E. Waterston.

Montreal II, Band at Cornwall.

In connection with the Montreal

Oshawa Corps Cadets and Candidates.

Standing (from left to right): C. C. Muriel Beattie, C. C. Olive Elfard, Candidate Albert Bottomley, C. C. Eva Graves, C. C. David Bottonley. Scattel: Candidate Eva Stevenson, C. C. Guardian Mrs. Crawford, C. C. Coull.

On Saturday afternoon Captains

Daniels and Lawson and the Cornwall Bandsme: met the visiting

Bandsmen, and the local Band played a selection of welcome. Marching back to the Hall they sat down to well-spread tables, and a most en-joyable supper, kindly given by the sisters of the Corps, was partaken of.

Open-air and free-and-easy meet-ings in the evening "broke the ice," and with freedom and spirit all entered in for a good week-end. One sister knelt in the ring on Saturday night seeking for Salvation. On Sunday a wonderful time was a record week-end.

spent. Adjutant Knight gave a helpful address in the Holiness meeting. The afternoon's open-air was spoiled by the rain, but the musical festival inside was very good.

A Good Vocal Quintette.

The Band has a good vocal quintette party, composed of the Band-master, Deputy Bandmaster, and Bandsmen Webster, Kelton, and Beal, and the singing of this party was excellent, as also were vocal solos by Bandsmen Beal and recitations by Bandsmen Major and Case-Throughout the week-end ment. Throughout the week the Band held twelve open-airs.

the Band held tweive open-airs.

The music rendered by the Band included "Proclamation," "Soldiers Hymn," and "Flowing River" marches, and "My Keeper," "Old

August 20th and 30th grand success, On Saturday night and Musical Festival in Band Stand. Human stood in the stress a grand move to get festival.

On Sunday no men held two open Favourites," "Hallelujah," "Songs of inside meeting, while Heaven," etc., selections, Cornwall Band rendered two or three items time of power and soul seeking the lie very creditably. Instrumental duets, trios, and quartettes were very much At three o'clock! Musical in the Halfilled. Ensign Suits night meeting. appreciated. Financially, the visit of the Band beat all records for

On Sunday night one sister volun-teered for Salvation, making a total During the wee inside meetings. Bandmaster Dust to beat as far as cerned. The local to the Band for fi On Monday morning arrange-ments were made to visit the Indian Reserve, and in the afternoon the they have given Band played in the Central Park, place of spiritual usefulness.

The meeting on Captain McAssass tribute to devote. and a welcome i Adjutant Comish > work men were hour Bureau be waiting anxions some employme only September need be before much to the an townspeople.

In the evening on too
their final musical tests
did crowd gathered at musical treat was pro-Captain Goodhew and Renouf, from Morradus tain Thompson and Jones, from Verdus, on for the festival.

We all appreciate to are grateful to our cast surer Cook and Banks. Gallinger spoke and thanks a ing. Both financially of the week-end was a saw Bandsmen Beile, Webster, terming to "Three Hebrew Boys" day night's meeting meet again, we closed

What the Pane

The following it as a the Cornwall "Standars" "The Bandmaster, No. I the Prince of Wales. Prince of Wales Fund.

HE national appeal for son, is a young mu musical ability, and ess assisting those who may be his Band is an artis, called upon to face suffering and hardship in connec-tion with the present, which ached with splendid promptisection of the organis inating in strength men who heard the la H.R.H. the Prince of Wales, ing but praise for it. with a magnificent response, understand that over five dollars have been subscribed Chatham Band at V in this effort The Army has Wallaceburg was in poperated, special collecre been taken, and our the open-air have done for the fund. God bless of Wales!

ander as Peace Advocate. understand that among the sonages in the religious ho have consented to serve World's Peace Committee nder Miss Booth, who, in the appointment, wrote: war among the nations may rminate, that camity beterminate, that cumity bease, that 'peace may be ently established upon the strongly appeal to all mast strong all noble efforts for bringset such a desirable result serves. A world-wide Salvaring is praying to this end."

that the Commander was ristmas Day, when we the singing by the of peace on earth and bard men, it is quite in the fitness of things

d lend her powerful adestablishment of peace, sh Prime Minister. Mr. Asquith, British , who has upheld the ie British nation in such manner, is a rer of The irmy. At the International

e sent the hearty mes-The General:e to offer warm itions, both on a behalf and on His Majesty's ent, to The Sal-Army on the ernational Conand to send all ics for the consuccess of its wide activities, ve for so long the admiration nen and of all denom-

Commander Miss Booth.

In other ways he has also shown his appreciation of Army Work throughout the British Empire.

Ensign Penfold.

One of the Canadian Officers chosen to go to the front as a Chaplain with the troops is Ensign Penfold. In volunteering for this arduous and dangerous duty, he had in mind the splendid opportunity before him of ministering to the spiritual needs of the soldiers, and he is confident that he will be used of God to lead many to a knowledge of Salvation. All other services that he may render them will be with this supreme object in view.

The Ensign has been an Officer for eleven years, coming out of Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., in 1903. When a Soldier at this Corps he used to accompany the Officers to the American military post across the river in order to conduct services with the troops. So he is not altogether a stranger to things military, and will no doubt get on well with the Canadian Soldiers.

For three years he was a Field Officer. He then went to Montreal Divisional Headquarters, where he was engaged in Special Relief Work amongst the poor. This was followed by an appointment as Cashier at the Vancouver Divisional Headquarters. Here he unfortunately contracted typhoid fever, which necessitated a year's furlough. On returning to active service he was appointed to the Immigration Department, and his duties in this connection have taken him from Halifax to Vancouver, and to all parts of Britain.

Ensign Martin. Another Officer who has volunteered to serve as a military Chap-lain is Ensign Fred Martin. He is a native of Edmonton, Alberta, and is a good type of the Western Canadian. Becoming an Officer in 1907 he had several years' Field experience in the Maritime Provinces, being stationed at Liverpool, North Sydney. Summerside, and Glace Bay. He was then appointed to the Subscribers' Department at Territorial Headquarters. As a collector he has proved very successful, pos-sessing the admirable qualifications of patience, plod, and persistence. He has been of great assistance in helping to finance building schemes in various cities and towns of On-At the same time he gives valued aid to the Corps Officers in the way of assisting at meetings and dealing with souls.

On one occasion he was instrumental in leading a noted drunkard mented very invourably on this as a sample of the work done everywhere by The Salvation Army.

The Ensign is also alive to his opportunities to put in a word for his Master when seeking donations from the wealthy. We are sure that he will render good service with the Canadian Contingent.

Captain McSwain.

Captain Angus McSwain is also among those picked out for special service at the front. The Captain is especially qualified for looking after the wounded, as he is an ex-

The British Prime Minister.

naval man, and has done Red 'ross work. Thirteen years ago be pent fifteen months on loard the Hospi-tal Ship Maine, during the South African War. He has thus had much experience which will make his services most valuable during the present war.

The Captain joined the Royal Navy when quite a lad, and at one time acted as messenger to Admiral Beatty, who so distinguished bimself in the recent naval battle off Heligoland. For two years the Cap-tain was on the cruiser Suffolk. which is now doing duty in the Atlantic Ocean.

On leaving the navy he went to' Vancouver, where he was attracted to a Salvation Army service. It re-sulted in his conversion. As an Officer, he has been stationed at Haliburton Uxbridge, and Bowman. ville, all in the Toronto Division, His last appointment was St. John IV. Corns.

The Captain has the reputation of being a straightforward young felhim God-speed on his mission of mercy and uplift.

The Temple's New C. O's.

A man of great tenacity of purstrikes one at first sight. And this impression is strengthened by more intimate contact with him. Perhaps his Scotch ancestry has something to do with this, but his early environment must also be taken into account.

When but a youth he made the acquaintance of the interior of a coal mine at Stellarton, N. S., where he literally earnt his bread by the sweat of his brow. Long hours by underground chambers, often all alone, almost compelled the lad to serious thought, and he relates that he would spend his time in prayer

whilst waiting to go to after his shift was done. On one such occasion! he had such a vision of the doom of the wicked and the duty of God's he made up his mind to be an Officer of

The Salvation Army. His own inability, he felt, was the chief obstacle in the way, but with characteristic determination he re-

The Praying League

in warfare for their country; that Divine and saving grace may come SATURDAY, Oct. 3.-Shipwreck. 2. Pray for our General in his Acts 27:27-41. many trying responsibilities.
3. Pray for rulers and statesmen

Praying League Notes.

(By Mrs. Blanche Johnston.) One of the topics for prayer this week is that those who bear the hurden of responsibility for earing for the unemployed may have Divine strength according to the measure of their great responsibilities,

The Founder-General, in his scheme for social amelioration, never intended that part of our work to fall short of helping the whole man (or woman) body, soul, and spirit. And while thousands all over the world are thankful to God for The MONDAY, Sept. 48.—Convicted But Unsaved. Acts 24:22-27; 25:2-11. [TUESDAY, Sept. 29.—Perplexing Prisoner. Acts 25:13-27. "NESDAY, Sept. 30.—Before Acts 26:1-18. "Act. 1.—Voyage to 27:1-6. Army's helping hand: outstretched them in the hour of dire temporal distress. Many of those so assisted have also been led into the paths of righteousness and truth.

The realization of this was brought very forcibly to one"s attention a few days ago. It was my pleasure to meet with the workers and also the Soldiers of the new Industrial Corps now located at the historic No. I. in Toronto.

of two souls for the week-end.

Visiting the Indian Reserve.

The occasion was the farewell of the much-beloved Commanding Of-ficer and his dear wife. Adjutant Hector Habkirk has been in charge of the work there for twenty-two of the work there for twenty-two months, and has been signally blessed in his efforts to make the work not only a blessing in a temporal way, but a centre of spiritual light as well. He opened a Copps in connection with the Industrial Department, and it was a sight to inspire one with faith and confidence in the power of the Gospel and the methods of Army Social Work there in operation. To watch the happy ,eager faces of the comrades scated at the well-filled tables, many of whom, as they afterwards testified, had been personally lifted, through Adjutant Habkirk, out of dark sad conditions, into a

A still greater by reason of the The very mo referred to, A ST

> with its extra pro Truly our Security wisdom and the prayer and any ers can size to have slipped economy of a

The fact that Captain Cowan learnt how to render First-Aid to the Injured during his period of Training now stands him in good stead in the district where he is working-namely, Feversham. It is a small country Corps, with numerous Outposts, and medical aid in an emergency is often difficult to get,

Under these circumstances the Captain has let it be known that he is willing at any time of the day or nuight, to render what aid he can to any who are sick or injured. Over the door of his Quarters is a large sign reading as follows:-

"SALVATION ARMY

OFFICER'S OUARTERS. Your servants for Christ's sake.

We are ready to visit the sick or dying at any hour of the day or night."

And in the spirit of this announcement the Captain lives and works.

A, woman in the neighbourhood went insane some time ago, and her husband, in addition to his distress over her affliction, was greatly troubled because he could get no one to watch her during the daytime. This prevented him "going to his daily work, and he foresaw destination ahead of him. The Captain heard of his plight and volunteered to watch over the poor woman while the man went to work. This he did faithfully for a whole month till arrangements were made for receiving the woman into an asylum.

A little later a poor fellow got his leg cut off in a sawmill accident. The aptain assisted the doctor to stop the bleeding and hind up the wound, and afterwards paid frequent visits to the sufferer to see how he was progressing.

Whilst out visiting one day he came across 2 woman who had run a rusty nail in her foot. It was swollen very much and looked as if blood poison were setting in. The Captain used drastic means to extract the poison and then elapped a linseed poultice on the foot, His prompt action probably saved the woman's life.

On another occasion he was called to attend to a man who had broken his leg. Very soon the injured member was in spliots and neatly bandaged. The man is now able to get around a bit on crutches, and is progressing well towards complete recovery. Another case was that of a man who got struck by a falling plack. The Captain had to bandage him around the body, but he proved equal to the task, and the man was very grateful for the timely aid. . . And then the Captain finds all sorts of work awaiting him in binding up the cut fingers and feet of the children. One little boy, for instance, trod on some glass with his bare feet and got severely cut, but the Captain was on hand to wash and dress the

By doing practical work like this the Captain is winning the love and respect of the whole countryside, and he is a welcome visitor wherhe goes,

The this is a striking Prison value a First-Aid Prison value a First-Aid Prison value a Cadets Acts Cadets

A First-Aid Man & Studies in Personality & Toronto D.c.

3--COMMR. WHATMORE

TRAVELLING INTERNATIONAL SECRETARY.

OMMISSIONER WHAT-MORE, who has recently been appointed a Travelling International Secretary, is a man of impressive appearance, a fine record, and possesses a charming personality.

The following story throws a had, with his daughter, been conducting a week-end's meetings in the Isle of Wight, and while making his way to the Southampton railway platform, after having left the boat, saw a woman in front of him carrying a very heavy bag. "You take my grip," said the Commissioner to his daughter, "and I will take that lady's bag," He politely offered his services which were gratefully accepted, and, as the train was speeding along towards London and they were all sitting in the thirdelass compartment, the Commissioner observed the person he had assisted take out a pad and write on She afterwards passed a note to the Commissioner. To his surprise it stated that she had just written a letter to Mrs. Booth, thanking her for the letter of sympathy that she had written to the Duchess of Arryle on the occasion of the death of the Duke. She was Lady Frances Balfour, a sister of the Duke of

A Beloved Officer.

But it would have been all the same to Commissioner Whatmore if she had been sister to John Hodge, ploughman, for his invate courtesy is extended to all in need and he is one of the most belove ! Officers in

It will be remember d that the Commissioner lost his only son-Captain Guido Whatmore-in the Empress disaster. A circumstance which caused him great grief.

The Commissioner has been an Officer for thirty-two years, and has seen service in Swede: America. Italy, and the United Kingdom. His last position was that of International Secretary for Europe and

Like most of The Army's most successful leaders, Commissioner Whatmore began his life's work while young.

The General's Dream.

When about seventeen years of age he was attracted to a Salvation Army meeting in the old White-chapel Hail, the first and famous Headquarters of The Army, and now the home of the Men's Social Work. He found Salvation at the Penitent-form. He felt the call to Officership almost immediately, but his apprenticeship stood in the way. When he was free he found that he was not so willing. A crisis came in his experience, however, when one night, as he was dealing with a penitent, the present General, who was leading the meeting, leaned across the platform rail and said, "I dreamt about you last night. What are you going to do."

"I am going to follow God," was the reply. A short time after he was in the Training College.

Commissioner Whatmore, despite his suavity of manner, possesses a great courage. He had been an Officer only about three months when he was sent as Captain to the town of Cheltenham, where he soon did a daring stroke of business. The Army Hall was very small, holding perhaps a hundred and fifty people. Not far off stood a disused Coliseum, which could accommodate ten times as many. The Captain an-nounced that if some one would send him $250 he would en-gage the big building and form a Brass Band. Someone sent along the money, and he promptly rented the building for a term of seven years. His Divisional Officer was aghast on hearing the news. "Well, my boy," he said, 'if it succeeds, all right. If it doesn't, look out."

Commissioner Whatmore.

A Success

We are happy to be able to record that the venture was a great success. Not a Sunday passed but the building was packed, and a great number of sinners were saved.

That same spirit of enterprise and holy daring which has characterized him through his very successful career, was early recognized by his for at the end of his first year's Officership, he was promoted to the rank of Staff-Captain, and promotions followed fast.

His appointments in the United Kingdom included four Provincial Commands, the oversight of the Juniors' Work in the British Field, and the Field Secretaryship of the United Kingdom.

Success in these appointments calls for administrative capacity of a high order. He is also, in Army parlance, a first-class public man. In his present capacity he will travel the world enlightening Salvationists upon the world-wide work of The Army, and inspiring comrades to devotion and Salvation daring, which he is well able to do.

Under the guidance of God he has carved his own career, and in saying this we do not, of course, leave out of account the influence and direction of his leaders. But a man's success depends so much upon his own efforts and upon his own wise use of opportunity that without having asserted his natural powers, Commissioner Whatmore would not have been in the high and privileged position he occupies to-day.

Lieut.-Colonel and Mrs. have just concluded a tour of their Division

Lochlin was the first say a very interesting little man population of eighty all felt been worked as an out Haliburton. It was work ting in a week-end here cheer the half-dozen Sa for the two men who to night meeting.

Lientenant Edith Australia on furlough, is looking also affairs at the present but tainly blessing her and the Norland was the next elec-list. After an early morning the G.T.R. Kinmount was Here Lieutenant McCant waiting with the old blok as Salvation rig. Nine mile beautiful country, with a his beautiful country, with she half-way at the home of se Major McWilliam's in brought the party to North Faithful courades, trist stood in the open-air and its Salvation's power. The followed leads that followed leads the stood in the stood in the open-air and its Salvation's power.

that followed inside was ing. The euroliment of geant-Major's daughte, with spirited talks by the and Mrs. Chandler, wa the joy of winning one days at the close was best of all

Nine miles back to Kinne rainstorm was not the size able ride, but it was seen service,

Fenelon Falls.-Captain and his Lieutenant were at tion. After Corps inspection of the rain, a heautiful o gathered inside was an in While no results were visit Holy Spirit was marvellous The Corps is certainly loss under its present Officers

Uxbridge came next Curtis and Lieutenant Personal bravely taken hold of the The people seem to have them warmly, and, judges inspection, things will be long. A Band is in course seems ation. The outdoor page execllent.

Parry Sound is experies ancial strain, but certain) ! did showing of our commis-Captain and Mrs. Pollock as doors and inside, was an ans New Soldiers are being of The Captain and his sol Scotch, are encouraged at the Harvest Festival Effort and taken up.

Prospects for Harvest Pa each of the above places, in tip-top. Already three tars smashed, and the others are

The Corps inspections are ing good, while the visitable sick and old people by Mr. dler have been much app

Colouel and Mrs. Chast eluded their trip with a visit bury to conduct the Harse val services. They had faces and two at the Mercy sea day morning. Capian Hancock had a fine displa-ers and fruit, which too sale on Monday, Sudbatt is smashed.

a very good time. Amongst those who came to the Penitent-form were a German, a Frenchman, an Italian, and several Swiss, while in the meet-

TERNATIONAL

IN SWITZERLAND

National Emergency.

and Pairs of Socks Being

Our Own Correspondent.)

whole of the Swiss army has alled out, and every man that ble of using a weapon is now frontier of the country. This that some fifty of our Offic-

we been called to military ser-d severely. We have, how-has an Officer to carry on th

Our Officers are being called to assist in all sorts of ways.

visiting the poor and assistevarious committees that are formed for the relief of the everal instances our Halls seen taken over by the military titles. The Federal Govern-

stal authorities have pre-have also been assisted. At a,at,the request of the author-oth our Institutions are be-

Chanz-de-Fonds, our large en handed over the military for the help of the poor has the Commissioner if he could

Officers for the conducting

Home for Women, which is opened.

Officers, as may be expected,

anifesting a splendid spirit.

are anxious to assist in every ossible, and the usual work is, the vigorously being carried leeting are held both in the

and the open ir. A large of soldiers gather round to and all sorts of opportunities

mmissioner has visited sevof the Territory. The converted, Mrs. Oli-

also conducted meetings

which have been well

tlett and myself visited erland, where we had

ning up to us,

ling two thousand people.

handed over the military

ared for any emergency.

A Splendid Spirit,

lelning the Government.

s for several days.

wave.

ranged matters so that every

ICERS CALLED

rovided for the Military

The Salvation Army Is Doing ings English, Danish, and Dutch Officers took part; so praise God, the love of Christ unites all nations, TO MILITARY SERVICE The sales of our "War Cry," which, at the commencement of the war, had been reduced to almost half the usual number, are rising week by week The finance, naturally, is being most seriously affected, great number of the factories are closed, and there are many people out of work,

Twenty Years' Knowledge.

An interesting case has just come ve of these have gone to to our knowledge of a Sergeant in one of our village Corps. He has oy) with several hundreds of s-a large number of them gone to Germany and several lived there for twenty years without, apparently, having made any great impression. On account of his age rilly, our Corps' Work has is exempt from military service. but when the call came for the others to go they came to our comrade and told him that they all knew how he had lived amongst them for twenty years, and now that they were going away, they wished to leave their wives and families in his care, as they were sure he would do all he could for them.

Naturally, our comrade is making every effort to assist them, apart from looking after his own cows, he goes to the different houses and milks the cows and helps in many other ways. Some of our Officers, too, are assisting the farmers to gather in the harvest.

has also sent us a number of ess persons. In Basel, at the tof the authorities, we ac-edated a large number of We have also had several in- MAYOR'S ADVICE wich we are preparing to care tary service have, understanding ree hundred women and chiltheir responsibilities as Salvationwhich the Government will ists, held small meetings, and it much per head and assist us other eases the Bible was read and prayers offered up, both for them-Commissioner Oliphant is g an appeal for ten thousand selves and their loved ones at home -many of the soldiers being seen in tears as their loved ones were g for the Swiss soldiers. Up present the response has been sti indeed. Some of the larg-sides houses have sent wool her material, so that now, all brought up to the Throne of Grace. In some cases the military officers have remained to these little meetings, and everywhere our people are treated with the greatest of respect country people are busy and appreciation. g and sewing for the soldiers.

The Army with fourteen and stamps for the correspon-connected with this work, sumber of stranded English SALVATIONIST IN NAVAL FIGHT

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH.

Nearly the whole of the crews of the ships which took part in the naval fight a few weeks ago belong to Chatham and Gillingham.

On Sunday afternoon at Gillingham a Salvationist who was engaged in the fight gave his testimony. He was on board the destroyer Liberty, which sunk the German eruiser Mainz. There were nine other men on the fore deck with our comrade-eight of them were killed. In the engagement he proved that his Salvation was a great help to him. After the fight was able to go and speak with and cheer his less-fortunate shipmates who were wounded. Some of their injuries were terrible, and our comrade assisted in binding up their wounds.

The towns of Chatham and Gillingham have lost some noble sailors in this great fight. As showing the swiftness with which the blow was struck, it may be mentioned that some of the boats only left Harwich on a Thursday, and were back in Chatham on the Sagurday.

THE GENERAL'S WEEK-END CAMPAIGNS

SOME OF THE RESULTS.

Figures are supposed to be uninteresting (says a writer in the London "Cry"), but they are often well worth looking at. Peeping over the shoulder of a burly and bewhiskered Commissioner the other day, one of the many pairs of eyes which look around for news likely to interest "War Cry" readers saw that during a campaign led by The General in a provincial centre some months back. one hundred and seventy-one seekers knelt at the Peniteur-form, Matters did not however, end there.

Something of the permanent value of that day's work may be gathered from other figures which also caught the eyes in question. Of those one hundred and seventy-one persons, thirty have been sworn in as new Soldiers, sixty one were backsliders who are now restored, other twentyseven have attached themselves to different places of worship, twentyseven were seekers after Holiness ho now give definite testimony. Another out of the 171 is already at Clapton, being trained for Officership. There are, therefore, only wenty-five who are not satisfactorily accounted for, and even these are being followed after by prayer and faith.

TO FARMERS

"If You Cannot Gather All Your Fruit, Let The Salvation Army Collect it and Make Jam for Needy Families.

Over twenty Reservists have been called up from Ipswich I. (Eng.). Owing to this depletion the instrumentation of the Band has had to be rearranged. During the week, the Mayor, William Pipe, Esq., J.P., issued an appeal stating that as fruit was in such an abundance this year he understood much of it would not he gathered, owing to the cost of picking, packing, and carriage, He therefore suggested to the gardeners and farmers concerned that they should either gather it and send it to The Salvation Army, or, if unable to gather it themselves, that they should allow The Army Life-Saving

Scouts to come and gather it. A good response has been made to this appeal and a start will at once he made to convert the fruit into wholesome iam for distribution to needy families. The Scouts have also rendered good service in colleeting the ucedful jars. Arrangements are in hand to make one ton of iam. The Mayor is making a grant towards the cost of the sugar.

The Seouts' headquarters, besides being turned into a jam factory, is to be fitted up as a Soldiers' and Correspondence Room. A brigade of sisters has been formed to deal with the soldiers' washing and mending.

On Saturday night, for the third time, the Band gave an open-air festival on the Corn Hill in aid of the Prince of Wales' Fund. Over one hundred dollars has been raised for this fund by the three festivals. Helpful meetings were conducted by Adjutant Davey on the

MAKING SOLDIERS

INTELLIGENCE

MANY HUNDREDS OF MEN GO FROM MEN'S SOCIAL INSTITUTIONS IN LONDON.

Salvation Army Makes "Down-and-Outs" Into Physically Fit Soldiers.

Since the outbreak of the war four hundred men have left the Spa Road and Whitecross Street (London) Social Institutions to serve their King and country! Of this number one hundred were Reservists, bur the temainder volunteered for service, and many of them (said Major Henderson to a British "Cry" representative) are known to have gone to the front.

"And yet," he added, "all were 'down-and-out' when rescued by The Army; most of them when they came to us had spent many nights sleeping on the open, and were without home, friends, or employment. After a few months at the Elevator, all have now passed the stringent military test! To-morrow three more men are on their regiments, and then there will not be left one man in either Institution eligible for military service!

'A man came to see me last night who had spent sixteen years in the army. Through some trouble he had heen dismissed, losing the rank of sergeant. Then he sank low, but in the end came to The Salvation Army and was helped up again. He has now been accepted for service with his old rank!

"This man is in the intelligence department. He has already been neross to the Continent and back, and having a few hours to spare, rail down to see the Major to tell him that he was still saved and doing his best to help his fellows."

"Another wrote to the Major that he was doing his best to live out what he had been taught at the Elevator, and had been trying to induce the men in his dormitory to give up swearing. In addition to the men from the Elevator, we are informed by Colouel Laurie, hundreds have gone into military service from the Shelters, both in London and throughout the country. It may be safely said that the number of men from our Social Institutions who are now fighting for King and country runs into thousands.

DISTRESSED REFUGEES

RUSSIANS AND GERMANS ARE HELPED IN SWEDEN.

Hardships Inflicted by the War

At Stockholm a very important work of relief has been carried on by The Salvation Army among the Russian and German refugees Sweden. Brigadier Nicholson, the Editor of "All the World," who was travelling in Sweden at the time in the interest of his Magazine, writes concerning this Work:-The Russian lady, Miss Von-Weissburg, who was present " International Congress

while on her way her luger

BUSINESS AS USUAL"

Under the above heading, a London daily paper has appealed to the British nation to go on with its ordinary trade and work. The advice is timely and sensible, and Salvationists may very well take it as their own motto and act up to it.

"Business as usual." At this time we may profitably ask ourselves, What is our business? Broadly speaking, it is to save souls, assuage human sorrow, and pray and work for peace on earth and good-will toward men,

"Wist ye not that I must be about my Father's business," said the youthful Redeemer to. His parents when they found Him in the temple, both asking and answering questions. We can readily imagine that these questions had nothing to do with the throwing off of the hated Roman yoke, nor the speculative war talk of that period. It was about the building up of the Kingdom of God in the hearts of men and women. That is also our business.

"Business as usual!" Why is the injunction necessary to Salvationists in Canada? Because there has been a number of things calculated to distract our minds and diminish our ardour. The loss of our comrades in the St. La wrence might, humanly speaking, cause us to sit down and fold our hands in grief, but faith in God and zeal for His Kingdom will enable us to go about our "business as 'nsual." The lack of a Commissioner is also a matter that might casily result in slackness and in a diminution of Salvation Army aggressiveness; but let us, although without a Territorial Head, do "business as usual," Then the war, with its distractions.,, What a temptation there is to indulge in excessive war talk and newspaper reading, instead of spiritual conversation and soul-saving work. Comrades for the Kingdom's sake, let us rise above the things mentioned, and keep to "Business as usual."

The fall and the winter monthsthe great spiritual harvest time of the Canadian Territory-is rapidly approaching. In the country districts the harvest will be gathered in, the rush season be over, and evenings of leisure the common experience. In the towns and cities the weather will be too cold to sit about in parks or on verandahs, and many will perambulate the gaily-lighted streets or frequent places of amusement. It is the business of the Salets to get these people into

Hall-and to Christ: Prison the thorough-NESD and Acts and A WEEK-END IN TORONTO

Commissioner and Mrs. Mann

ON OLD BATTLE-GROUNDS-THEY VISIT THE CENTRAL PRISON-HAVE A SUNDAY AT THE TEMPLE-AND ADDRESS AN OFFICERS' MEETING.

AND LEAVE FOR JAPAN

THE services at the Temple last Sunday were characterized by magnificent congregations, much spiritual power, and great human interest They were conducted by the Chief Secretary-Commissioner and Mrs. Mapp being the principal

During the day the Chief Secretary made very fitting references to distinguished and welcome visitors. The Commissioner's work and example were an abiding influence or good on the Canadian Battle-Field he said

In the afternoon Lieut-Colonel Turner and Major DesBrisay each spoke a few words of welcome. Colonel Turner said that upon him had devolved something of the work formerly done by Commissioner Mapp when Chief Secretary in Canada, that is, the visiting of members or the Provincial and Dominion Governments, railway magnates, and others. He found that the Commissioner had left a splendid reputation behind him, which greatly helped the Colonel in his work.

A Precious Memory.

Major DesBrisay said that among the Officers and women of the Wo men's Social Work, the name of Mrs. Mapp from Newfoundland to

Vancouver was a precious memory. The spoken words and the demeanour of the Officers and the congregations must have been very gratifying to Commissioner and Mrs. Mapp, and will doubtless be a green memory to them when far away. At any rate, they received a striking expression of respect and

Captain Mapp, during the day, sang with very great acceptance. She has developed into a vocalist of very considerable power, and, in the evening meeting, her rendition of the song, "I'll trust in Him who holds me," touched many hearts, Mrs. Mapp's Scripture readings and talks were the means of great comfort and inspiration. When the news of their appointment to South America came, Mrs. Mapp followed a custom of hers when in circumstances that call for encodragement or counsel, she asked God to give er a comforting promise. Opening her Bible, her eyes fell upon these words: "Thou shalt go to a far city, dwell with thy children, and return again," She remarked at the time on the peculiarity of the passage to Adjutant Young, who, a few days ago, reminded her how literally Gnd had fulfilled His promises. Mrs. Mapp, to show how God reveals Himself to those who call upon Him in the hour of trial, related some very remarkable personal experiences,

God Was With Him.

The Commissioner's addresses were a great feature of the meetings. The Holiness address was of remarkable interest and inspiration. It was based on the words; "For God was with him." By means of striking analogies and illustrations, the Buenos Ayres a man who was enged in he great pedestrian effort North America to

Commissioner showed how men by a power apart from themselves have been enabled to do great things, as for instance, the young Covenanter who, when called upon by Claverhouse to violate his conscience, refused to do so, and when the soldier's nike was thrust into his hoso:n cried as he fell: "If every hair on my head were a life I would give them all for my blessed Lord."

Again, the Commissioner met in the southernmost point of the Continent. It appears that at one time he had to pass through a locality where no white man had previously been, and which was infested with hostile natives. The pedestrian went to the chief, who gave him a stick with a peculiar notch in the top. This proved an effective passport, and although he was frequently beset by murderous Indians the notched stick enabled him to pass.

through the country in safety. Even so in our journey through life, we can overcome all obstacles to spiritual development if we have

God with us. In the afternoon the Commissioner gave an interesting address on the peoples, customs, and Salvation Army War in South America.

A packed Hall listened to a stir-Salvation address from the Commissioner, based on the fall and regeneration of Nebuchadnezzar, and a number of penitents came to the Mercy Seat for the day. A splendid Salvation day was brought to a close by singing "God be with you till we meet again." The Soldiers and friends greatly enjoyed the meetings, which, by our distingushed visitors, will be long remembered. The Chief Secretary was supported by the Territorial Headquarters Staff, and excellent service was rendered by Lieut,-Colonel Rees in connection with the prayer meeting.

WITH T. H. Q. STAFF.

At noon on Monday, September 14th, a niceting of Headquarters Staff was held in the Council Chamber with the twofold purpose in view of welcoming Brigadier and Mrs. Morris to Territorial Headquarters, and bidding farewell to Commissioner and Mrs, Mapp, who are on their way to Japan.

Colonel Gaskin paid a splendid tribute to the work of Brigadier Morris, especially in the London Division, during the last few years. The Brigadier said that throughout his career he had always felt that his opportunities were greater than his abilities, but he was going to do his best in his new position. He thanked one and all for the kind welcome given him.

Both Commissioner and Mrs. Mapp spoke, expressing their love Canadian comrades, and asking for an interest in their prayers, "The prospect hefore us is trying," said Mrs. Mapp, "but it spells opportunity, and we are going forward in the strength of God to grasp it."

Lieut.-Colonel Turner prayed that journeying mercies might be granted the Commissioner and his wife, and that much success would attend their efforts in Japan.

(Concluded on Page 11.)

Important Territor Changes and Appointme

Lieut.-Colonel Arthur E. San Financial Secretary at the torial Headquarters, Chian been appointed Financial Secretary for the Canadian Tentory, Bestake up his duties early in Go

Brigadier Miller has been men ed head of the Architects as the struction Department; this doment to be, in future, separate the Property Department

Brigadier Frank Morris bat up his duties at the Ten Headquarters as Head of the sa Department.

A new Division has been con The present Corps in that I vince will form the nucleus at new Command, to which John Hay has been appointed a Headquarters at Edmentes takes charge October 1st

Major J. F. Southall has be pointed Superintendent of the Ma Social operations at Montrest

The following changes after Chancellors, have been den upon: Staff-Captain White is Chancellor to the London Da and Adjutant George Smith to Chancellor to the Pacific Dist

Adjutant Bloss of the lone District Emigration Office hate appointed to the Men's Social Reand will take a position is taking trial Institution at Montreal London Emigration Office Bla temporarily closed. Adjutant Hattie Scott, ef the donan Industrial Home, has be appointed to take charge of the lit moral Lodge, Winnipeg.

Adjutant Woods, of the West Hospital, Toronto, is to be lies of the Maternity Hospital at the gary, Alberta.

PERSONALIA

INTERNATIONAL

Colonel Bullard is shortly in England for the United States the purpose of conducting 25st tion Missionary Campaign her Colonel Unsworth has aring London from Newfoundland Mrs. Brigadier Walker, sit four children, arrived in Lees from Canada. She will spend as time with her friends in Kent. Mrs. Walker were two of the Coloucl and Mrs. Maidment's dren, who are being cared for its Children's Lodge at Clapton.

The Commander's fall and as campaign promises to be of usual streamons kind. An exten-tour that will take her to take parts of the United States is as

We extend our congratulations the following comrades over

Lieut,-Colonel Gustav Reisland, Financial Secretary, Nature Headquarters, to be Colonel Lieuters and the Colonel Lieuters and the Colonel Lieuters and the Lieu Colonel Stephen Marshall, R. Northern Province, to be the Brigadier Thomas Staryon Western Social Secretar, to Lieut, Colonel. Brigadier Wil Barker, Property Secretary.

Headquarters, to be Lieut-Com Brigadier John T. Fynn, Sec for Field Affiairs, Western torial Headquarters, to be Colonel. Brigadier Emil Mars Western Social Secretary, Lieut-Coloquel, Brigadier Atkinson, General Secreta

England Province, to be Lieut.-Colonel. Brigadier Albert Kimball, P. O., Michigan and Indiana Pro-

Major Christian Christophersen, General Secretary, Eastern Scandinavian Province, to be Brigadier, England Provincial Staff, to be Bri-

Staff-Captain Bernard Anderson. D. O., Boston Scandinavian Divi-sion, to be Major. Staff-Captain Henry D. Bale, Finance Depart-ment, Western Territory, to be Maior. Staff-Captain, T. H. Storey, Western Training College Staff, to be Major.

TERRITORIAL

Sept. 26, 1914.

Commissioner and Mrs. Mapp left Toronto on Monday evening for Winnipeg, where they will spend a day, and then proceed to San Francisco to embark for Japan. A large number of Toronto Salvationists were at the Depot to bid them God-speed. They leave their daughter, Captain Satya, and their son, Kris. in Toronto—the parting was very

Lieut.-Colonel Turner will, at the end of the present month, visit Newfoundland in connection with properties and to confer upon other satters with the Divisional Comnander and Chancellor.

Licut.-Colonel Hargrave will shortly visit the East in the intersts of the Candidates and the Young People's Work.

In the removal of Adjutant and Mrs. Bristow from the Immigration Department in Winnipeg to Vancouver, the North-West Divisions sustains a loss. They have always en acceptable specials.

Our deepest sympathy is extended Brother Jehu Roberts, of The Army's Printing Works, on the eath of his wife, who passed away on September 14th, after a severe liness. God bless the bereaved ones.

NEWSLETS

The new Training Session begins on the 17th inst. There will be beeen seventy and eighty Cadets. The Officers' summer home of rest at the Beach (Winnipeg) for the North-West Division, has been dosed for the season. Quite a mber of Officers have spent a very pleasant and profitable time in connection with their visit to the fage. last week-end. He gives a very enaging report of the work there. The following changes have rely taken place in the North-Division; Adjutant J. Habitk, to Edmonton; Adjutant Geo. nstone, who has been on furth for some time, to Prince Al-Adjutant Hamilton, to Moose Adjutant Piercey to Medicine

The latest arrivals in the Northst are Captain and Mrs. Beckett, have taken charge of Portage Prairie, Captain Munroe, Lieuint Sampson, and Lieutenant ont have also been welcomed the Division Captain Marsland, who has been ng for some time in the Immion Department at Winnipeg, is ng an appointment in the glarge crowd gathered on Monhight last at St. James (Winnior the wedding of Brother W. ckman and Sister Matilda H. er. Staff-Captain Peacock had ve of officiating at this in-

A Chat with Commissioner Lamb Koreansat Winning

HIS VIEWS ON THE INDUSTRIAL AND SOCIAL OUTLOOK FOR CANADA AND A PREDICTION.

OMMISSIONER LAME, at the moment of our snatch interview, was a busy man. He read and signed letters, replied to the questions of Secretary, and talked to "The War Cry" interviewer at the

'You've been west, Commis-

"Yes. Since I left here about three weeks ago I have spent seventeen nights on the cars." What was your object?"

"This trip took the place of my usual October visit on Emigration

"What is the outlook?"

"The harvest prospects in the north are good. In the south the drought has interfered very much with the crops. I think some parts of the Dominion will strongly feel the pinch, not altogether on account of the shortage in crops, nor on account of the war, as money was tight before the present time, but through a combination of the three eauses. It may be necessary to have considerable relief work during the winter in the way of road-making, etc. I have, so to speak, for twenty years, sat at the feet of the Founder of The Army, also the present General, during the sociological period of The Army, and, as a result of my knowledge, both theoretical and practical, I have ventured to write a letter to the press on the 'Industrial and Social Outlook.' Perhaps you would like to have a copy for 'The War Cry.'"

A Tribute to Canada.

"Thank you. What about the new Territorial Commissioner, sir?

"I shall be able to say more about him after I have been in London for twenty-four hours. In the meantime, go on as-you have been going, for I think the smooth and successful way that the Work is being carried is a great tribute to The organization as well as to the Executive in this country.
"I remember reading in an interview with your late Commissioner that the night prior to his being taken ill, he said to dear Major Findlay. Well, Major, if you and I die tonight, The General's campaign will go on as well without us as with us. on know what happened. Commissioner was at death's door, and The General had a gloriously successful campaign. I may say Commissioner Rees left things in just such a ship-shape manner when te went to the Congress; and apart from a natural curiosity on the part of comrades to know who their Leader is, there is nothing under the present conditions to prevent a splendid advance.

The Right Man.

"The General has so clearly manifested his great interest in Canada, and given it so much of his attention through the storm and stress which he has undergone during the last few months, that Canadians rightly enough, have every confidence that The General will do the very best for Canada that is possible and send the right man at the right time

"Commissioner McKie, on his return from Canada, addressed the Staff Council, and said that the disaster had made the people as plastie as wax. Let everyone of us exercise all our powers of body, mind, and imagination in moulding the people we can influence in the likeness of "I predict a winter of soul-saving and spiritual advancement. The General has filled almost every gap ereated by the disaster; he has given full proof of his recognition of loyal and successful service. Now, then, for a forward movement! Forgetting the past and closing our cars to the clangour of war's alarums and worldly tumult around us, let every Officer, Soldier, and friend concentrate their attention on the Corps with which they are connected. And now I must go.' The interviewer helped the Commissioner on with his coat, but even in that process he listened to a young Officer who desired the priviof becoming a Missionary to the heathen, and with a parting injunction to the young Captain to go back to his Corps and keep the Flag flying until the war should permit The General to send contingents of Missionaries into the dark places of the earth, the Commissioner left for New York to sail to England on the Cedrie.

Herewith is the letter which contains the Commissioner's considered opinion of the winter's outlook:---

Re Industrial and Social Outlook.

Sir.-At this important time in the history of the Dominion, permit me to submit a few observations and offer the following suggestions for your consideration. In doing so, I am satisfied that the men of affairs in Canada who have in the past shown such capacity for development and organization will not fail at this juncture to develop schemes to meet the need,

Now is the time to do the elear thinking and the quiet preparation necessary to meet the emergencies likely to arise from the changing conditions with which the country will be confronted during the com ing months. Do not wait until they arr upon you.

Two general propositions will, I dare say, be universally accepted:-(1) That Canada cannot afford to have a single idle man or woman. Apart from the fact that work means food and shelter for the worker (and it may mean nothing more), the need of the Empire calls for every person contributing his or her share to the common wealth. Should not we all be working over-

(2) That work of a directly productive nature should have a first place in your consideration. Failure to organize our civil forces would indicate a failure of the organizing brain power of the country-a state of affairs I cannot conceive. Idleness is at all times waste-at this stage it would be a wicked waste,

I am not going to attempt to formulate schemes for meeting the needs of the memployed, for obviously they will vary according to the local requirements and opportunities, and each community ought to take its share in this matter. But venture to make the following suggestions, in doing so, I am assuming that all employers of labour, elnding, of course, public authorities, will continue to strive to maintain as far as possible normal conditions, and that you will only called upon to address "

(Cone! upod or

A MAGNIFICENTLY SUCCESS. FUL WEEK-END.

The Prairie City Charmed With the Visitors from the Hermit Kingdom.

Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 15.—The visit of Colonel and Mrs. Hoggard, with the Korean Party, to Winnipeg for the past week-end was a magnificent success. The Koreans created a tremendous stir, and atio vis tracted great crowds at each appear ver ance. The Citadel was packed for H the several meetings. On Sunday night an overflow meeting was held. The Koreans/eek took part in each service, and the and people were delighted, inspired, and thrilled with all they have seen and heard. Many old friends gladly greeted Colonel and Mrs. Hoggard.

The Sunday's meetings were the crowned with splendid spiritual re-week sults. Nearly a dozen came forwary glas for Salvation and Consecraticed on Finances excellent. Divisional Co mander and Mrs. McLean rende; caluable support throughout. T Koreans were charmed with Winnipeg-Staff-Captain Peacork,

Salvation Tents on Camping Grounds

THE ARMY'S ENDEAVOUR TO HELP AND BLESS THE NATION'S DEFENDERS.

Greatly Appreciated by Soldiers and Authorities,

The British military authorities have given permission for The Salvation Army to erect tents on several of the camping grounds up and down the country, and already three-at Woolwich, Southampton, and Feltham-have been opened. In these His Majesty's soldiers will find facilities for reading, for writing letters, and for rest and quiet.

freshments are also provided. This venture by The Salvation Army is much appreciated by both officers and men. For instance, the Ensign at Woolwirh had no diffienlty in getting the tent erected, for the garrison sergeaut-major very kindly placed at his disposal for this purpose as many men as he required. The Colonel's Courtesy,

At Spennymoor the colonel of the Territorials has supplied Adjutant Howlett, the Corps Commanding Officer, with a list of the names and addresses of the men in his regiment who live in the town, so that the Ad-jutant may be able to look after heir denendants.

Fourteen or fifteen Salvatior Army Halls throughout the country have now been taken over by the military authorities for the lodgment of troops, At 12.30 on Sunday morning, st the Woolwich Camp Ground, the bugle sounded for parade and hun-dreds of soldiers, in full war accou-trement, assembled in readiness to commence their journey to front" at 3.30. In the meantime (writes a "War Cry" representative) many flocked to The Army's tent, and hundr of cups of tea and coffee. a light food, were suppl

Then as many a threw themselv hour or tw

NTY-EIGHTH ANNIVERSARY.

ajor Coombs Conducts the Ser-Vices at Yarmouth, N. S.

twenty-eighth Anniversary rvices conducted here by Major bombs were well attended. Many Id adherents and friends have been tooking forward to these services with much interest. anday was commenced with a service, and ended with ouls seeking Salvation, Dur-services the Major introducral new choruses, among "On the ocean of love and fercy," was heard for the first time our town, and now has become a copular air.

The forethought of Captain and

rs. Ham arranging to have letters Former Commanding Officers well worthy of mention. These letters were read during the evening ervice, and were received with much

We are glad to welcome in our unist Margaret Bessie Ham, daughr of Captain and Mrs. Ham, whose me we will have the pleasure of ding to our Cradle Roll. Brother and Sister C. A. Haines, a have been spending the summonths here, have returned to ir home in Freeport.-L. A. H.

TO PASTURES NEW. igadier and Mrs. Morris Farewell

from the London Division. Brigadier Morris has bidden fareall to his London friends. On Sunday morning he addressed a large meeting at No. II. Citadel, in the fternoon he spoke in Victoria Park nd in the evening he hid farewell the comrades at No. I.

Addresses were given by the reconnected with our work, ining the League of Mercy, Young les Work, and Band, jutant Smith was in charge of meeting, and gave a short ad-and Mrs. Morris expressed ell regret at leaving the city. rigadier gave an appropriate Wychwood (Toronto).

Sunday, Sentember 6th, the meety Captain Cummings. The after-box morning and evening, were tell y Captain Cummings. The after-box meeting was led by Candidate josher, assisted by the other Candidates, while the Band held openilr meetings. Two souls came for-eard for Sanctification in the morn-Holidess meeting, also two souls Salvation in the night meeting. n Tuesday, September 8th, we

-wing for the Training h 3.-- E. G. S. Priesto

COLLECTION TAKEN UP IN SABOTS.

Captain Van Der Ven Visits Wingham, Ontario.

We had good services this weekend, when Captain Van der ven was with us. He gave an interesting lecture on "Holland," on Saturday night, which was much appreciated, The Captain was dressed in Dutch costume. An attraction on Saturday night was the taking up of the collection in the Dutch salots

The Captain had charge of the service all day Sunday, and we finished up with one soul at the Mercy Seat.

Monday being the day for special prayer, the Rev. Mr. Riley (Baptist), gave a very interesting address, and in the afternoon the Rev. Mr. Hibbert gave an address on sacrifice and individual service.

At night Captain Van der von gave an address, "Comrades in Arms," and also gave an address in the Opera House the same evening on behalf of the patriotic fund,

On August 23rd, three Recruits were enrolled under the Colours by Captain Champken.—K. F. C.

ANSWERED THE CALL

Brother R. Gilliland Leaves Forest, Ont., for Training College.

On Sunday, September 6th, we said farewell to Cadet Roy Gilliland, who leaves Forest Corps for the Training College.

After conversion, family prayer was started in the Cadet's home, and the result has been three other nembers of the family, two brothers and a sister, becoming converted,

Our comrade has been faithful in Soldiership, and will be greatly missed from the Corps: but will enter the Training College with the prayers and good wishes of every oldier and friend.

During the week we had a surprise visit from Captain Van der ven, who conducted the Thursday night meeting. His talk was very much enjoyed.

The prayer meetings for peace on August 31st were very well attended. Captain V. Moffat and Lieutenant V. Henderson are the Officers in charge.—"S. A."

Midland, Ont.

A wonderful time and great spir-itual blessing was the result of Bri-gadier Adhy's visit to the Midland Corps on August 29th and 30th, We had large open-airs, big crowds, and real Salvation meetings inside, wo backsliders returned to God.

August 31st was a day of prayer for peace. We had a splendid meeting in the evening.-Harry Martin, Scal Cove, Nfld.

Our new Officer, Captain Mayo, arrived here on August 26th, and be following Sunday led the geoil day.

moved to tears, and at

A HALLELUJAH WEDDING.

Bandsman B. Hotchkiss and Sister M. Osborne Were United at Owen Sound.

Owen Sound Citadel was crowded to the doors on September 7th, when Bandsman Bramwell Hotchkiss and Sister Matilda Osborne were united by Brigadier F. Morris, As the party entered the Hall Sister E. Thomas played the wedding march.

After the opening hymn and prayer, the Brigadier had a few words. Brother W. Jackson sang a solo, after which the young couple, who were attended by Sisters Blanche and Nellie Osborne and Brother Stanley Thomas, who supported the groom, stood forward under the Colours. The bride's mother and brother were also present. .

Bandsman Banks spoke on behalf of the married men and Sister Mrs. H. Woods for the ladies. The bride and groom also had a few words. and the bride sang a solo. Adjutant Trickey, the Officer in charge, also read a message from the mother and the Old Land.-Band Sec. James.

BAND BOOMS "THE CRY."

And Officers of Simcoe Pray With Prisoners.

The week-end services conducted by Captain Clayton were of a very helpful character, and the Soldiers and Recruits received much blessin from the Captain's talk on "Noali's

Very many people attended the evening open-air and listened to the Band selections. Indoors the Hall was filled, and among the penitents at the close of the service was a town bandsman who has been attending the meetings for years; au-other was the husband of the new Young People's Sergeant-Major, Three others followed, making a

During the week Captain and Mrs Snowden visited and prayed with the prisoners in the local prison, and Band boomed "The War Cry"

at Delhi, a neighbouring town. The visitation of our Officers is being much appreciated by Soldiers and sinners, his talks at Soldiers' meetings on "The Value of Army Uniform" have helped quite a number of comrades to commence to wear uniform-Rawlins.

THREE SEEK PARDON

Major Barr at New Waterford, C. B. We have had a visit recently from Major and Mrs. Barr. The Major gave us a short talk onhis trip to the International Congress, which was very much enjoyed, was Mrs. Barr's first visit, and we all enjoyed her words of counsel. Captain Fraser, who is on furlough, is visiting here, and read the Lesson on Sunday evening.

Three souls came to the Mercy Seat. We wound up the day with a call to tears, and at Hallelujah sing-sorg.

Hallelujah sing-sorg.

Hallelujah sing-sorg.

Hallelujah sing-sorg.

Hallelujah sing-sorg.

Hallelujah sing-sorg.

Hallelujah sing-sorg. SPECIALS AT AURORA.

Captain Little Conducts Week-end Campaign.

A vigorous campaign was conducted at Aurora by Captain Little on Saturday and Sunday, September 5th and 6th. We were also glad to have with us Sergeant-Major Marskell and Young People's Sergeant-Major Ogilvie. of Toronto L.

On Saturday night a bold attack was made in the open-air on Yonge Street. The inside meeting was a happy time, at which there was a record attendance

The Sunday night meeting was a most impressive time. Sergeant Major Marskell recalled the days of fourteen years ago when, as a Lieutenant, he was stationed at this Corps, and was pleased to meet so many old comrades. Captain Little delivered a powerful address.

As a result, a young girl sought victory. Showers of rain spoiled our usual open-air attack after the meeting, so a real, happy "family" gathering was held for a wind-up. We have just welcomed into our midst Sister Mrs. Barnes, with Alex and Edie, and baby Harold, also Brother Barnes, Senior, who have come to settle here, with Brother T. Barnes, late of Oshawa, who has been here for some months. They comrades will be very useful additions to our Corps .- A. W. M.

CANDIDATES FAREWELLED

Two Going to the Training College from Yorkville,

On a recent Thursday evening we had the Chester Band and Songsters with us, and they gave a splendid programme of music and which was very much enjoyed byall.

Candidates Gage and Armsti farewelled for the Training Colle Their words were of great bless to us all. We shall miss them cause they were faithful Soldiers over two years. But gladly do give them up to such a grand and Candidate Paxman, from Quite (our Captain's cousin), was with us, and we shall ever remember burning words, as she told some of the struggles in cont with the work at Quebec, and willingness to again go back then an Officer if God saw fit to se We wish these young people speed, assuring them of our low prayers. Three souls were contained to God.

Sydney Mines, N.S.

We are thankful that "What we have we hold." The enemy is strong and well entrenched, was a second to the control of the contr mean a desperate fight if we capit to get the victory; but victory will come, because God is for as. We are fighting against great olds but nevertheless we shall come out more than conquerors.—J. W. Beccut, Ensien.

Cholera has broken out in the Ma dras Territory of India, and two native Officers have been 'reta-to Glory following attack

ADVANCE AT OTTAWA I.

Sept. 26, 1914.

Band, Juniors, and Seniors All Making Good Progress.

On Monday evening, August 24th, the Senior and Junior Bands favoured the citizens by giving an in-teresting and profitable open-air assiyal in front of the Windsor Ho-Large crowds gathered, and the Bandsman gained much applause. Their playing showed good training, and they displayed artistic qualities. The collection amounted to over

On Wednesday, August 26th, the Janior Workers, members of the Senior Bible Classes, Adjutant and Mrs. Ritchie, and other invited outing at Aylmer gassis held an outing at Aylmer Park. The day was all that could be Much praise is due the Young People's Sergeant-Major, Mrs. Davey, for the success of the sffair. The spread provided by the Sisters was excellent and reflected great credit on their culinary skill.

On Thursday evening, August Banling and the Chancellor (Staff-Captain Walton). The infant son of Brother and Sister Stewart was dedicated to God and The Salvation Army, Staff-Captain Walton officisting. William David Stewart is the name given to the child. The Bri-feder read the Scriptures and gave an address, which had the true Gospellring, and was very acceptable to large amilience. Mrs. Ritchie soloed very effectively.

On Sunday, August 30th, interest-mentings were held throughout the day. In the afternoon meeting ign Robinson gave an address, the stirred the hearts of the e. Mrs. Ritchie led the testimeeting; the comrades' testiwere almost entirely on the er of years they served God the good old Army Flag, and at it had meant to them, being cially enjoyable.

the evening meeting the sing-of Mrs. Ritchie and Sister Hoar, the earnest and impressive adof Mrs. Adjutant Ritchie, at blessing to the audience. Under Adjutant and Mrs. Ritchie, orps is making good progress gh only a short time with us, spirit. lly, financially, and musically. A number of conversions have recently taken place, and some of the converts are taking their stand in the open-airs. -D. M. N.

GHTENING UP AT BOWMANVILLE.

are beginning to brighten amenant Luxton has defarge, and we feel out his leadership the on. The Band is cont-We have seven Bands-The people are saying music sounds. The the Bandmaster.

us for the week-end, 30th, Envoy Coull, Iis talks were of spiration to the vds on Sunday. open-airs fine old in our

JAIL WORK,

Victories at St. John, N. B.

Our Work in the city and county jail is being blessed by God, and from time to time we see some definite results for our labour. On Sunday we had a splendid meeting with the men, and at the close two men came forward and claimed Sal-

We use the Penitent-form in our We use the Pentent-form in our jail meetings, and the non come for-ward qcite readily. We are believ-ing that many of these dear fellows will be eternally saved.

After many years of restriction, during which women were not allowed to enter into our jail meetings, we are now granted full freedom to take Sister comrades with us, to take part in our services every Sunday. For this victory we thank God, believing that it will result in much good being done for and amongst the men .- Wm. Cummins.

DAY OF PRAYER.

Meetings at London I. Led by Bridier Morris.

According to the desire of The General, August 31st was made day of prayer at the No. I. Citadel here. The afternoon and evening meetings were conducted by Briga-dier Frank Morris, assisted by Adjutants Smith and Ash.

In the evening the Voung People, of whom we have a goodly number, took a special part. Particular referwas made to the conditions which exist in The Army world at this time, and special and fervent prayers were offered that peace may he quickly restored, and Divine guidance given to all those in authority and who control the destinies of nations, and that Jehovah would intervene, and, in the words of the Psalmist, "Cause wars to cease,"-C.

CANDIDATES FAREWELL.

Results in Nine Young People Con-secrating Their Lives at Berlin, Ont,

Two of our comrades, Candidates Johnson and Harrison, said good-bye to us during Sunday's meetings. Candidate Johnson has for some Candidate Johnson has for some seventeen months been assisting Captain Mortimore, and in making reference to her, the Captain said that she was not only losing a valu-able assistant, but a friend, a companion, and a sister.

Candidate Harrison has been associated chiefly in the Junior Work, sociated enterly in the jumor work, in which he has done good work as Record Sergeant. Young People's Sergeant-Major Mercer, in bidding the Candidate good-bye, pleaded for some saved young person to offer to fill the gap caused by the Candidate's departure.

Sergeant-Major Schroder spoke on behalf of the Corps. We finished up at eleven o'clock with nine young people consecrating their lives to

MADOC BOMBARDED.

Soldiers from Tweed Hold Three Open-airs.
On Sunday, August 30th, one soul, a backelider, who had disobeyed God for seventeen years, surrendered, We took our annual trip to Madoc on September 5th, and we held three open-airs. Spier rowds/ careto hear the merowds/ caregathered, and anFAREWELL OF BRIGADIER AND MRS. FRANK MORRIS.

A Substantial Progress Made.

Splendid crowds attended all the meetings in London in connection with the farewell of Brigadier and Mrs. Morris at No. 11, Corps, In the arts, storris at No. 11, Corps. In the morning, both Corps united, the Citadel was nicely filled, and the Brigadier gave a helpful address on

In the afternoon a large crowd gathered in Victoria Park, crowdng up around the large ring.

At night the Citadel was crowded, the march preceding the meeting was the largest on record. After the opening song and prayer, a numher of comrades representing the different branches of the work spoke different manches of the work spoke feelingly of the help and blessing the Brigadier had been in their midst, Scotch Sergeant-Major Conmidst. Scoten Sergeam-Major Con-die voiced his feelings in the follow-ing quotation: "Had we ne'er met and ne'er hae pairted, we wid ne'er been broken hearted."

Adjutant Bloss spoke of the Brigadier's sterling qualities, and the gamer's sterning quanties, and the many monuments of good work he has left behind. The Chancellor said since the Divisional Commander had taken command there were twenty-six properties that had been built, bought, and improved, providing better Halls for our work, and Quarters for the Officers' comfort and well-heing. This has meant more crowds, better finances, and, best of all, good returns in the Salvation of souls. The Chancellor also spoke of how Mrs. Morris had stood nobly by her husband and helped him carry the burdens of the

Mrs. Morris then spoke very feelingly of the kindness shown her by everyone during their stay in London Division.

The Brigadier spoke of his appreciation of the kind words spoken, and said he could not have accomplished the work done without the pushed the work done without the hearty co-operation of his Officers and Soldiers, who had worked hard to bring about these results. He then closed with an earnest appeal to the unsaved.

There was a beautiful spirit throughout the service, and, we be-lieve, much good was done. The meeting was closed by singing "God be with you till we meet again."

MEETING IN DANCE HALL Loaned to Army Officers by the Manager of a Coal Mine.

On Tuesday last, September 1st, we went to Edson. The people were very pleased to see us, and were anxious to know if we were going to open there.

We came across a Salvationist, his wife, and four children, who heartily welcomed us. The people there knew he was a Salvationist because he always wore his Army guernsey to church, so they were able to direct us to him. Thank able to direct us to him. God for The Army uniform!

In the evening we held a rousing open-air. We had the Salvationist, his wife, the Baptist minister and his wife, and our two selves. Crowds came to listen to us, and they showed their appreciation by giving us a good collection,

On Thursday, September 3rd, we On Thursday, september 314, 114 went to Entwistle, Many people have move from here, but VICTORY AT UXBRID

One Soul and Harvest I Target Smashed.

Last week-end, September 5t oth, we had with us Secretary
Mrs. Stone, of Brampton, whole of great help to us. Their sin was very much enjoyed, both ir open-air and in the indoor meet Candidate Leonard Hunt also candidate Leonard Hunt also ited us recently, and helped much with his music and singing was formerly a Soldier and L Officer of this Carps. We had good meetings this we end, September 12th and 13th, finished up with one soul at Mercy Seat. Attendance also ge throughout the day. Sunday afternoon Captain Cart conducted the funeral service of friend's child, and the people we much impressed. We are very gla report that we have smashed or Harvest Festival target.

ALL-ROUND IMPROVEMENT Adjutant and Mrs. Johnstone Are Hustling at Prince Albert.

The welcome meetings of Adjusfant and Mrs. Johnstone were decided success. On Friday las the Adjutant set to work and renvated the Hall, and effected a tra formation with a marked impre d ment of the lighting system of

On Sunday afternoon Rev. Edon Suntary arternoon key, Eu-ward Smith, in charge of the work of the Methodist Church at Billing Lake, visited the Citadel and gave a thoughtful address.

The Adjutant has made interesting interesting improvement in meetings with his concerting, tgest Mrs. Johnstone is very inspiring, with her singing and banjo playing. Georgie, their hoy, is quite an addis-tion to our baby Band, playing

Brother William Thomason iss Icaving for the Training College,

Bandmaster C. F. Mepham.

COMMISSIONER MAPP AT CENTRAL PRISON.

(Continued from Page 5.)

Dr. Gilmour, Warden of the Cen tral Prison, exercises a wonderful influence with "the boys" under his eare because of his splendid humanis tarianism. This manifests itself in his readily facilitating any influence calculated to appeal to the minds and consciences of the flien for theireown uplift and moral strengthening.ne Thus it was that Commissioners Mapp, Colonel Gaskin, Lieut.-Com-Rees, Majors Southall and Fraserage with the Men's Social Staff, together 35 with the Riverdale Band, revelled in the the opportunity of imparting cheer is and blessing to the inmates on Saturday evening.

Paying a tribute to the work of The Army and the Commissioner's interest and good offices when c Secretary, Dr. Gilmour intr

the speaker of the evening Com ssioner's heart-stirring red the more for endered i-

Fishing in the North Sea

N INTERESTING ARTICLE ON INDUSTRY THAT IS SUF-FERING/SEVERELY FROM GERMAN MINE-LAYING.

Through German mine-laying operations the North Sea has been brought into considerable prominence of late, and much sympathy has been lelt for the fishermen of the North Sea who have suffered great loss. The port of Grimsby alone, has had sixteen trawlers destroyed through German mines. We understand that the British Government urough verman mines. We understand that the British Government contemplates closing the North Sea to shipping so long as this horrible practice continues. The following article on North Sea Isshing, which we take from the "Pall Mall Magazine," is of timely interest.

cab-driver gets about London, using just such a life, long acquaintance with bearand routes. When in doubt ey drop overboard the lead, and scovering the depth and looking at aat adheres to the tallow they are certain of their wherebauots as ac cabman who sees a familiar ame on a London lamp-post at Dogger Bank in the "Pall Mail Magazine." He further says:
"When our empties were dis-

THE North Sea fishermen get ders, and from depths of over severall the about the North Sea as a entriesthouse enty fathoms—a depth not found on the Dogger—the winch hauls all to the deck. Our men had their own reason for curiosity when the signal was given for the engineer to begin hanling. My enriosity, for another reason, was no less great. The en-gineer's job, while the trawl is coming in, is one requiring a delicate and experienced touch. There is a serious and at first an intermittent strain on the cables of supple wire. If a eable were to snap there would be

"Accidents happen in this little town at sea, and sometimes bad ac-

It is swung in over the deck, pouring with water and slime, and the bottom of the pocket is deftly unfasbottom of the pocket is deftly unfas-tened. The mass falls, the living fish writhing and scattering in all direc-tions; haddock, eod, plaice, halbut, soles, and lake, principally. You are warned not to handle specimens, cardessly. A hake can give a masty bite, and a weaver, with its poisonous spines, may do even worse.

A Lumpy Sea,

"There is a litter of star-fish, crustacea, and weeds with it all, strange forms of ocean plasm more attrac-tive to the naturalist than to the fishermen. Sometimes the trawl brings up what had better been left at the bottom, the men will tell you; but they have no opportunity to elaborate such gruesome affairs when the catch is on deck. That has when the catch is on deck. That has to be cleansed and sorted into hoxes. I saw it done in winter. It was cold, with a bitter and searching wind, and there was a lumpy sea running; and with those deep cuts on their fingerjoints, common to most of the crew, which the brine kept raw, whatever the reward of the men it was not

"It was my last evening on the Dogger, the day had kept sunny, and the brisk wind fell as evening ap-swarm of little boats weighted w fish trunks. We would see a b balanced momentarily on a hill-t and it would souse and vanish, to appear just when I was doubtful, a come towards us sidelong down foam-laced incline.

Poised on thwarts, the fisherm in oilskins and comic hats, shout rude jokes in what appeared to deadly circumstances, waited for second when our deck would be le with them, and when it was, dash in their boxes before their ho were far below us again. Men co not show more alertness and d terity. They clambered aboard a bearded fellows, and our iron re with the trampling of their he boots. They came to claim not the skipper. "At midday our hold was full fish and ice, the hatches were mi gullies; the engine bell rang, and fairly leaped away on the home a a shower of humorous haddocks lowing us for good luck and as voyage."

FIVE CANDIDATES.

Farewell from Wychwood for Training College,

Once again Wychwood is to represented in the new Session represented in the new Session the Training College. We are to announce that five of our Yo People are entering the Coll The Holiness meeting conducted Captain Cummins was of great while in the afternoon the Band Soldiers held two open-airs in of the usual indoor meeting.

At night a few words were spe by Candidates Brown and Spe while Candidates Miss Bosher Sister Sibbick spoke of how the ceived the call, and what it meat them. Sergeant-Major Subick Earlscourt was present and on behalf of his daughter. He of how his six children were in Army, and that he not only it them right, but he also lived to the control of the before them.

Corps Secretary Brother B gave a farewell address, and on farewelled from sin. The Ba making good progress, unde master Higgins .- Band Seen

CONVERTS WORK WELL

Encouraging Signs at Montreal IV

On Sunday, Sept. 13th, Rajat and Mrs. Rock were in charge. converts were busy all day te what God has done for the

Two souls came forward i secration on Sunday, and week another comrade a Salvation.

On Thursday, Sept. dier Rawling and : Rogers, son of our P. geant-Major, was Corps Sergeant-Ma Brother Dew, who People's Sergean

NEWS NOTES and COMME

N the old days a soldier was expected to be a hard drinker, and the phrase, "drunk as a trooper, has become proverbial. Things are different now, however, and every effort is made to discourage drunkenness in the British and Colonial armies, the authorities, no doubt, recognizing the fact that drinking does not fit a man for arduous campaigning.

Discipline in this respect is very strict at Valcartier Camp, where the ready for service in Europe. A recent order states that any men who misbehave themselves through drunkenness or otherwise shall be discharged as volunteers for the Canadian overseas contingent and returned to their homes forthwith. NORWAY GOES DRY.

NE of the novel results of the war is to make Norway a "dry" country, in the sense that no liquor can be obtained. Owing to an anticipated shortage of foodstuffs, King Haakon has issued a proclamation closing all breweries and distilleries by prohibiting the conversion of any grain or potatoes into spirits or beer during the war,

The proclamation also forbade all wholesale or retail sale of spirits, but allowed the existing stock of beer to be sold. One result is that the Christiania Liquor Samlag has clos-ed many of its drinkshops and re-leased a hundred and fifty of its public-house managers, etc., from The Norwegian newspapers report that the brewers and distil-

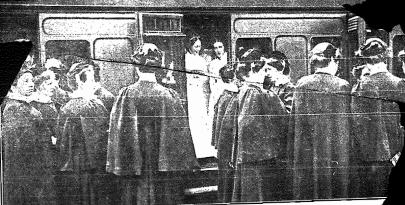

men. This force will be made up as follows: Regulars, 1,200,000; terri-torials, 300,000; reserves, 214,000; Indian contingent, 70,000; Canadian first and second contingents, 40,000; Australians, 20,000, and New Zealand, 10,000.

JAM-MAKERS GET BUSY.

OWING to the embargo on the exportation of jam from the Canadian-made jams will greatly in-erease. Over half a million dollars' worth of jams, jellies, and preserves are annually imported from Britain to Canada, and the shutting off of this supply will give a good chance to Canadian jam-makers to increase their output.

Already they are getting busy, and is reported that many large facmethods of destruction with which Nature employs,

A well-known naturalist say "There is a beautiful mereiful pr vision in the apparently cruel hab of the skunk, marten, stoat, and The first bite which the skunk delivers is generally sufficiently powerful to cause instantaneous insensibility, if not instantaneous death.
Its habit of drawing the blood from the veins is another preservative against suffering, for the wounded animal is thus deprived of its liwhile its senses are deadened

TURKEY ABROGATES HER TREATIES.

THE abrogation by Turkey of all treaties made with her since the eleventh century means that foreign subjects no longer will enjoy what is known as extra-territorial rights, through which they have been tried by their own judges, diplomatic reescntatives, or consuls

Upon the rights revoked has rested the legal status of foreign missionaries in Turkey, permitting them to maintain churches, hospitals, and schools in religious freedom.

schools in religious treedom.
All the powers have notified Tur-key that they cannot accept this abolition of treaty rights,

WOOL TRADE IS GOOD. OOLLEN and warsted main-tracts that msiness. ki in the contracting e could not facturers

London Hospital Nurses at Charing Cross Station Prior to Entraining

lers are to hand over their stocks of grain at eost price to the Government as food for the people, CHICAGO TO BE SEAPORT.

THAT ocean steamships will soon THAT ocean steamships will soon be making calls at Chicago is a probability. The ships will make regular trips between New Orleans and Chicago by way of the Missispipi and a ship canal, picking u other inland ports en route. The object is to facilitate the exchange of Middle West product for those of Middle West products for those of Central and South America. A of Central and South America. A system of banking service is includ-ed in the plan, which is being pushed by several Chicagoans.

CATERPILLAR PLAGUE.

THE Kowloon plantations in China are suffering from a plague of caterpillars. Twelve millions have been destroyed so far, and the Hong Kong Legislature has voted $6,500 to carry on the work of exter-

tories are running night and day, and thus employing many extra

CONTROLLING A RIVER.

O prevent the river at Rangoon, Burma, from shifting its channel, thus forming dangerous sand-bars, and tidal currents, one of the biggest river control systems ever built has just been completed.

This work consists principally of a ans work consists principally of a first-training wall about two miles long, much of which is built in water having a depth of over fitty-three feet at high tide. The wall is composed of rubble stone, has a bottom width of two hundred and twenty-five feet, and rests on a series of brushwood mattresses, three feet thick. In the construction of the wall 6,000,000 bundles of brushwood and 1,500,000 tons of granite were used, and the total cost of the wall was about $5,000,000.

At the top the wall is built well above high-tide by means of con

A N immense force is now being MORE MERCIFUL THAN ited by the British Empire for THOSE who traduce

CANADIAN FLOU

CANADIAN Crubher indust a result of the the Dominion ments for an barrels of flo ning of the the flour mili mills of Car grinding Car dian flour

As abo ber clot will stim

dian-m

means when he calls the ocean the her of life. The trawls are down -ht hours, and are then hauled airal. range chest, discover d a wall long clos an winches, at a signal from 'a scoffer in V He in iers always have at least one

Yellow, Fleshy Fingers.

a weed called 'sponge' by the men. When one sees how the fish swarm here-nearly two tons of fish in a single haul is not uncommon-one understands what the biologist

"Dancing about on the crest of the waves."

often the success of a man's task ay's fishing to help the wages acdepends entirely on his timeliness and dexterity. Misealculation brings disaster on him. The human madmiral who sets the course for the ficet, the trawlers lowered their nets, chine, not being an affair of cogs and went slowly over the travelling, hills, towing their nets over the pas-aires of the haddocks 120 feet below. and gear, of mathematical exactiand automatic precision, is sometimes a little 100 soon or a bare fraction short in its duty, and The bottom commonly is a white smashes badly. and, but in places the net comes up paded with the yellow, fleshy fingers "A trawler is fitted only for the cidents, for the work is rough, and use of healthy and even vigorous life. Such a small ship is, in winter, almost always in quick and uncer-tain movement. The man maimed in such a situation has to endure horrors; and though it is possible that a hospital ship of the Deep Sea Mission may be near, yet even so the imagination shrinks from contemplating the transfer of a victim.

"Sooner the Better."

"It is significant, too, how many of these deep-sea fishermen are un-able to swim. The mate of our ship t to know reculd, not proached. The mounds of the sea turned glassy, decreased, and dark-ened. The lights of the fleet, gliding through the dusk, glowed like near planets. The vessels lying athwart the lucent west, a stay-sail set on each for steadiness, were sharp, black forms, shapes cut out of night, and those black and phantom ships with their coloured stars moving across the wall left bright by the sun will never, for me, sail out of that light. They remain imperishable, set in the glamour of a dayful from which the light will never quite depart.

Silently, for hours, the city of un-Silently, for hours, the city of un-dulating streets moved forward, its lamps swaying, lifting, falling, scat-tering, gathering in clusters. When the admiral changed his mind and his course, red or green rockets soared from his deck. The feet prepared to haul trawls again at mid-night, and gas flares made little explosions of white light on every ship. Our own winch began to bang its cogs and again what luck there was for us was ming in. It was

Last Sunday's well, and turne ings. They a' tunity to ter fashion.-G

HE MIGHT HAVE BEEN

The Amazing Story of John Bryce

THIS INSTALMENT OF OUR SERIAL STORY CONTAINS A POWERPUL DESCRIPTION OF JACK'S FALL THE DEATH-BED OF THE OLD POSTMAN AND A CHAT WITH THE DOMINIE.

fumes of strong drink, which as the evening went on rose to his brain. That night ended in oblivion for

THE READER

with Bryce had an ancestors a gume at Preshyterian ministers, most famous of whom was a costribed Covenanter, hinted to set by Claychouse. Our Blory could with Jack, then a hoy of the Brych of the string grories of the cuty of the string grories of the string grories of the cuty of the string grories of the string grories are string grories and growing grories are string growing grow

Coronanters

y a kappy boyhood in the glen

y jack jeaving home with his for college, and in our last we went with him into life

miverally of which we were

CHAPTER VI.

TEMPTATION AND FALL.

N an instant Jack's good resolu-tions were gone, and in a few their way to their destination.

Arrived at MoLeod's

ents they were bowling along

ofter lack's arrival a move to the supper room, where spirits were freely used.

o one suggested that

ses filled up her glass

v-coloured wine, and nother, said, turning

w, Mr. Bryce, come

can't: vou see

any of that stuff

ter greeted this k, looking very nd would open iast young

Crane.

se me; e drinks do you

ne. Come,

drink, but presently one

r under en of invitation to a

Jack Bryce. "Drunken with wine" of dishonour had entered into his young heart, and what the end of it all was to be, he did not yet realize,
McLeod and another of his companions placed lack in a cab and took him to his rooms, where they managed to smuggle him in without being seen by any one, for it was late, and every one in the house had

In the morning Jack woke with an aching head and parched lips. For a few moments he could not fix in his mind what had happened but very soon memory began to place him on the rack. Like a flash a vision of it all came back. At that moment he knew that the Jack Bryce who had awakened the morning previous was now dead, and in place there lived anot could not be avoided." It went humming itself in all sorts Tital and never met beof sounds through his brain. Oh! m with loud voices, and the not know; but how was be ever to ace of being fast—the others es. whom McLeod introhis soul? Why had he not thought as actresses who were to apof them before? Who can depict his feelings when it came to him that he, the descendant of a long line of noble ancestors, strong and upright of body, calm of voice, and proud of eye, clean and well-grogmed, had so weakly given way to evil.

"I am sure you won't refuse me."

One Dark Snot.

Three years posed from the time Jack Bryce experienced his first lapse from sobriety and the bitter agony of soul that followed, and he developed into a talk broad-shoutdered young giant. During those years he proved a most successful student and carried off the highest student and carried on the highest honours it was possible to gain at College Amid the brilliance of it all, however, there was one dark spot tovershadowed everything.

m the night when Jack Bryce his first thate of the intoxicat-to he was closely mixed up

The pure-minded boy who had left the glen on that October morning of the past, had become the earclessliving man of the world, whose only thought was self. The devil had carefully lured his victim into the

... He had, however, become a clever student, a smart football player, and a universal favourite. But, alas! There was upon him a spot of leprosy—he was fond of strong drink and otherwise lived a fast life.

"Going the Pace."

The wonder of the thing was that studies well up to the mark, and at the same time continue in the whirl of gaiety around. He could, he eor gatety around. He could, how-ever, grasp things very quickly and so was able to master proble took other and longer to under-took other and longer to under-ge applied himself to his studies with such vigour that he soon outstripped his less-mentally-swift fellows. Still there were those who shook their heads and averred that young Bryce was "going the pace," and would sooner or later "come a cropper.

He had hitherto been able to cover his evil life so successfully that no breath of it reached his parents away amid the heart of the Lam-The people who might have told them, hesitated fearing to cause the pain that any such dis-closure must inevitably cause So to them and to all the glen folks Jack Bryce still lived in their hearts and in their imaginations as they had first known him

At the close of each college session he went to Thrumdochty, and spent the summer vacations amid the old scenes and those who loved him.

On the oceasion to which I now refer he was home on a vacation, and and as he passed through the glen on his way to -Peter McWhirtle, the old soldier. who was on his death-bed-he was conscious that he also had under gone a change, and that it was for

The old man's wife, Tibbie, had been dead a long time, and within the last two years a great tragedy had come into his life. His son Tany who had been one of Jack's chums at the old school-house, had been drowned while trying to ford the river whilst it was in flood. Now the lonely old soldier was passing away, too.

away, too.

Without knocking Jack opened the door and passed into the room beyond. The blind of the one window had been drawn and he stood etill for a moment in the fading evening light. Presently there came a

The old man was dozing, and la with folded hands upon the bed-cover. In the semi-darkness lack saw the face now so altered. The cheeks once round and ruddy had lecoue hollow and waxy white. At last lack took the thin hand in his grasp and whispered, "Dear" head wearily aside, and murmure "Ye'll excuse me, sir, but I'm auld, his name and said that he had come to sit by him. Slowly the light of recognition came across the old man's face, and with tremulous voice, he spoke again:

"I'm glad tag see ve aince mair. sir; and it's rale guid o' ye tae come." A pause and then: "They're a' deid an' gane—Tibbie an' Tanimie -a' deid an' gane." The old soldier's thoughts were living in the past. Suddenly struggling up on his lbow he seized lack by the hand. "Laddie, I'm gann tae ma last par-ade. I mann answer ma name, are. I main answer ma name. Praise His name I'm ready tac gang, an' I'm no fear'd tac dee. O sir! wull ye meet me up youder, where there's nae sorrow, an' mae care, and where we can ave look upon the face What iceling thronged through Jack's heart as he realized that he was not fit to meet him in the land above!

Faithful Unto Death.

"Tibbic," the old man whispered, "I'm comin', lass, I'm comin'!" For a moment he scented to be listening then-"Hark tae her, Tammie hark! -how the auld river roars -a muckle drumlie flood-but we'll gang, Tanunie, we'll gang owre the away. Wh window he flood. Th the scene. land aro His old f With tea heart. In deather

And this

for the University came ng for a long time, and she become a confirmed invalid, by drew nearer when her ave be true once more leave her she

she must have him conmust have had a vision of the future. must have had a vision of the future, because of a surety in the days to come the memory of these words was to rise up hefore Jack Bryce. Yes, and he was to be thankful that her side. On the night her side. On the ingin soldier's face, mother and he had one friend remaining.

y dear," said the mother in ay to the Home above, and, feel that very soon I. too.

the same road."
The same road.
T

lack dear! You must not is," came the sweet voice, must be done, and almay be hard, yet if He ist go.

my heart sometimes, and I annot be long now," said n, will you promise to live

eart was wrung with the in because he know that if ed him away as he was he hope to go to his mother He felt he could not tell wickedness, and so he brokenly, "Yes, mother I will come to you, never ssing her gently he bade night, and went out into light to fight down the tor-lief that was welling up in Wandering down the old oad, he saw a light in the have a word of consolathrough the door he knew found the dominic scated purite chair reading the ith the Dominic.

tway in, laddie," cried the "I'm glad ye've come to sek. Your time is getting now, and very soon we'll d you good-bye again." ie." said Jack, "I feel so ht. I have been talking to and—Oh, tell me—old you think she is going himself down by the doin a wild paroxysm of sobbed as if his heart

lie I hae loved ve since vee toddlin' bairn, and my is wae for ye this night." minie, "But, Oh! ye must Lord's Word when He Lord giveth and the Lord hen it is not for us to d after all it will be for ome! let us pray to God ice these two, the old dominie, and the stal-student knelt together at of grace. The dominic this soul in prayer that guide his young friend give him strength to hear ht come. As the oid throbbed out his supplifeeling of peace stole acle's heart, and when he feet he felt better, a dominie had bidden him

he stretched out his hand d said: "Laddie, I want appens to you in the days hether it may be weal or er your life be success or a day ever comes when ve need a riend, even if the whole world be against you, remember that the old man who taught you as a laddie will

Surely at this moment the dominic

(To be continued.)

"Hold the Fort"

THE STIRRING STORY OF A

Ho. my comrades! see the signal Waving in the sky! During the Civil War in America.

ast before General Sherman began his famous march to the sea in 1861 and white his army lay camped in the neighbourhood of Atlanta on October 5th, the army of General Hood, in a carefully-prepared movement, passed the right flank of Sherman's army. It gained his rear, and commenced the destruction of the railroad leading north, burning rainroad leading norm, burning blockhouses, and capturing the small garrisons along the line. Sherman's army was put in rapid motion pur-suing Hood, to save the supplies and larger posts, the principal one of which was located at Altoona Pass, General Corse, of Illinois, was stationed there with about fifteen huning second in command. A million and a half of rations were stored there, and it was highly important the earthworks commanding the Pass and protecting the supplies

Six thousand men, under command of General French, were detailed by Hood to take the position. The works were completely surrounded, and summoned to surrender. Corse refused, and a sharp fight commenced. The defenders were slowly driven into a small fort on the crest of the hill. Many had fallen, and the result seemed to render a prolongation of the fight use-At this moment an Officer caught sight of a white signal flag far away across the valley, twenty miles distant, upon the top of Kenesaw Mountain. The signal was answered. and soon the message was waved across from mountain to mountain: "Hold the fort I am coming.-W. T.

Cheers went up; every man was nerved to a full appreciation of his position, and, under a murderous fire, which killed or wounded more than half the men of the fort, they held the fort for three hours, until the advance guard of Sherman's army came up. French was obliged

This historical incident was related by Major Whittle at a Sunday School meeting in Rockford, Illinois, in May, 1870. Mr. Bliss was present, and the song, "Hold the Fort," was at once born in his mind.

The next day Whittle and Bliss held a meeting in the Young Men's Christian Association rooms in Chicago. Bliss went on to the platform and wrote the chorus of this hymn on the blackboard. He there sang the verses for the first time in public, and the audience joined in the chorus. Soon after he had it published in sheet form.

Mr. Bliss said to Mr. Sankey once. not long before his death, that he hoped that he would not be known will never forget that to posterity only as the author of the friend in the glen. If "Hold the Fort," for he believed that he had written many better comes However, Mr. Sankey relates that when he attended the dedication of the Bliss Monument at Rome Penns sylvania, he found these words in-

P. P. BLISS

Author of "Hold the Fort" The pine tree from which Sher-man's signal was flown was cut down a few years after the war and was made into souvenirs; Mr. Sankey received a baton made from it with which to lead his choirs. Lord Shaftsbury said at a meeting in London: "If Mr. Sankey had done no more than teach the people to sing 'Hold the Fort,' he has conferred an inestimable blessing on the British Empire."

DISTRESSED REFUGEES

(Continued from Page 7) ong enough for the refugees to arrive in their thousands, and for our

comrade to be of the utmost value to Commissioner and Mrs. Ogrim, Brigadier Hulander and our Show and Sneial Officers, who were doing their best to grapple with the unique

Miss Von Weissborg was of great help, rendering valuable service. Both in the Russian Embassy and Consulate, and everywhere she went she wore her uniform, and we susneet she had almost ceased to worry about her lost huggage!

In this good Samaritan work The the Ambassador and Embassy in Stockholm, and they have given money towards the work, saying: Order what you like and give what help may be necessary, and we will DAY YOU Knelt at Her Feet.

Upon one occasion, when "Nearer, my God, to Thee," was being sung in German for the consolation of some of the refugees, our comrade. Miss Von Weissburg, stood upon a sian, telling the many poor Russians also there the meaning of the words. There were some moving incidents. When she finished, a poor man came out from the crowd and knelt at her feet, and began to weep and pray.

The Army has helped at the trains those who have been both going and coming Germans and Russians have been housed and cared for in our Stockholm Halls (No. III. and No. VI.). In our Women's Shelter, too, a good number have been under The Army's protection.

There are many other stories of help given. There is that of the man succoured by our Officers who had been standing almost incessantly for six days, and who was taken off the train in a dreadfully exhausted state and quite delirious. This man need-ed clothes very hadly. In a short time one of our Officers was able to obtain for him just what he needed from neighbouring houses she visit-ed. The poor fellow, who made a good recovery, was full of gratitude to The Army for its love and eare.

Touching Gratitude.

This spirit of gratitude was specially noticeable everywhere. When Ensign Udden took a little party of Russian women from our Shelter to the station in an automobile they were very grateful. The Ensign offered four women (sisters of the company) some money. "No, thank you," they said; "we have received little money from the Consulate. But you have been so kind, and we thank you very much. We are from thank you very much. We are from. Warsaw. Do, please, take this little thing," and they thrust a bracelet watch into the Ensigns hands. "Do, please," thy pleaded. "Yes, yes, do keep it as a dittle reminder of your great kindpe

The love and sympathy of all the Swedish people have been overpow-ering to the refugees, and especially to the Russians, who say, "We will teach our children to love Sweden, because you have treated us in such

CHAT WITH COMMISSIONER LAMB

(Continued from Page 9.)
the abnormal state created by the war in Europe

(1) That without delay all nossible public works should be scheduled in three classes: (a) Local (b) Provincial; (c) Federal; and that financial considerations be govern erned accordingly.

(2) That in considering the foregoing, preference be given to schemes calling for the minimums. of capital expenditure in plant etc.

Utilization of existing implements: so long as they are reasonably effective is of more importance at this time than anything else. It would be ten thousand pities if when any special efforts were ended there was nothing left but useless machinery (2) That special consideration be given to the cultivation of land for mmediate production, and in preparation for the probable influe of large number of settlers at the con clusion of the war. The possibility land in close proximity to cities should not be overlooked.

(4) That in all public works so scheduled the ordinary rate of wages be suspended, and that some he last resort, need only provide for food and shelter for the worker and his family.

(5) That leaders should come forward prepared to organize the thousands of people throughout Canada: who, I helieve, are ready and willing to organize, to sacrifice, to work, and to endure for the safety and well-being of the Empire. (6) I venture further to suggest that the present state of affairs calls. not for charity, but for cool, hard-headed-(warm-hearted, if you like) business treatment. When that is done, there will probably still be left: enough by-products and misfits to

I pray God to guide you and your colleagues in all your deliberations. and that we have a speedy and perretary.

manent peace.
Yours sincerely,
DAVID C. LAMB, Commissioner, International Sec-

WELCOME TO WOODSTOCK

New Officers Have Splendid First Week-end-Five Souls.

Ensign Mercer and Captain Mc-Gowan were given a warm welcomes to the Woodstock Corps this weekend, Saturday and Sunday, September 5th and 6th. The Captain's sing-ing, accompanied by her guitar, was greatly enjoyed by all, and drew good crowds to the open-air in the market square on Saturday night

Ensign Mercer's addresses during the day were a source of inspiration to all. A good spirit prevailed in all the meetings, which reached their height when five souls kneet at the Mercy Seat. Finances for the weekend were good.-E. Ransom:

For Sale at a Bargain if Take New stereoptican Jantar Once

acetylene and eler-

COLONEL GASKIN

Lisgar Street, Thursday, Oct. 8 (Welcome of Lieut-Colonel and Mrs. Smeeton).

LIEUT.-COLONEL TURNER

St. John's, Nfd., Saturday, Oct. 3, to Tuesday, Oct. 6. Carbonear, Wednesday, Oct. 7. Bay Roberts, Thursday, Oct. 8. Bildo, Friday, Oct. 9. Grand Falla, Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 10 and 11.

Brigadier Adby

Bracobridge, Sept. 25, New Liakeard, Sept. 26, Cobalt, Sept. 27, Haileybury, Sept. 28, North Bay, Sept. 29, Huntaville, Sept. 30. Hamilton I., Oct. 1. Niagara Falls, Oct. 3 and 4. Welland, Oct. 5.

Brigadier and Mrs. Bettridge Ingersoll, Wednesday, Sept. 16. Woodstock, Thursday, Sept. 17. London I., Sunday (Harvest Festi-

Adondon I., Sunday (Harvest Festival), Sept. 26.
St. Mary's, Wednesdy, Sept. 23.
Strathroy, Thursday, Sept. 24.
Windsor, Saturday and Sunday,
Sept. 26 and 27.
Hasser, Monday, Sept. 28.
Tasanington, Tuesday, Sept. 29.
Stratford, Saturday and, Sunday,
Cott a and C.

Oct 3 and 4.
London I., Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Oct. 11 to 13 (Thanksgiving Services).

Brigadier Cameron (With Women Cadets.) ment Street, Sunday, Sept. 27.

Brigadier Phillips (With Men Cadets.) Rhodes Avenue, Sunday, Sept. 27.

STAFF-CAPTAIN DOBNEY. London Rescue Home, Oct. 9 to 30

ARMY SONGS.

SURE TO FINISH WELL.

I'm a Soldier, and I fight For my Saviour and the right, In my heart His blessed presence ever lives; Though the world may scoff and jeer.

I can stand without a fear,
For He perfect joy and peace and comfort gives.

Chorna.

We're sure to finish well (repeat).

If I and you are good and true,
We're sure to finish well,
We're sure to finish well,
We mean to fight and conquer,
We're sure to finish well.

So I stand my ground and fire, While the hosts of hell retire. As with sword in hand I raise my voice and sing: When my fighting days are done. And the victory is wor. I swill about a Hallehijah to my King.

BLESSED ASSURANCE BLESSED ANSURANCE.
Blessed asurance—Jesus is mine!
Oh; what a foreta.
Helt of salvatio, 'Il' to project odd.
Born of His 2 Natural 250 to His lessed assurance, perfect delight, Visions of rapture burst on my sight;

Angels descending, bring from Echoes of mercy, whispers of love.

Blessed assurance, all is at rest I'in my Saviour am happy and blest; Watching and praying, looking above, with His goodness, lost in Filled with

GLORY TO THE LAMB,

Tunes.—My Saviour suffered, 255; Song Book, 254. My Saviour suffered on the tree! Glory to the bleeding Lamb! Oh, come and praise the Lord with Glory to the bleeding Lamb!

Chorus. The Lamb, the Lamb, the bleeding Lambi

I love the sound of Jesus' name, It sets my spirit all in a flame, Glory to the bleeding Lamb!

He bore my sins and curse and shame, And I am saved through Jesus'

I know my sins are all forgiven, And I am on my way to Heaven,

And when the storms or me are 1'll sing on upon a happier shore. nd when the storms of life are o'er.

PARS ABOUT PEOPLE.

(Continued from Page 5.) Sacred Volume through on his many other ways he so sought to improve himself, that he might be of improve nimself, that he might be of use to God and he Army. His re-ward came in numbers of souls saved at each Corps he commanded, and also in the increasing confidence his leaders placed in him.

He rapidly rose to the rank of Ensign, and was placed in charge of a District. Moneton, Peterboro, Montreal I., Vancouver, and Victoria were the Corps and Districts he commanded.

At the latter place his health unfortunately broke down, and he was compelled to resign for a while, al-ways cherishing the hope, however, that if his health improved he would return to his loved work in The

Ten years passed away, however, before that auspicious moment ar-rived. During this period he married Adjutant Gibbs, a Field Officer several Corps and Districts, including Winnipeg I. and Victoria, B. C. Re-accepted for the Work, they were sent to Barrie, Ont. Guelph, were sent to Barrie, Ont. Guelph Victoria, and Edmonton followed and now they have taken charge of the Temple Corps (Toronto).

SASKATOON BAND AT NORTH BATTLEPO

The visit of the Saskaton Band was the real treat to the as well as the same of the local Conficers and co of the local Conficers the trived at 8.20 Saturday August The Band Boys were the Conficer of Saskaton Band Grew, assisted by Adatas drews, assisted by Adatas and Captain McElmoyfe, to the open-air stand of and Captain inclinions, and on to the open-air stand on Street. The crowd filled he on all sides, and a real good tion was given. The Band tion was given. The Ban marched to the Duchess I when a splendid programs

Sunday morning at 9 a.m. th met for knee-drill. An open-again held, and great attento enthusiasm was shown. enthusiasm was snown.
Andrews spoke from Col. 3:2
afternoon service was in the fa
a musical festival. It was very appreciated by all.

On Sunday night the De Theatre was crowded. A ra pressive service was held The left again for Saskatoon on day, August 17th. Since the hearts have been cheered by th and inspiration given to u, as Band has been the talk of Battleford. The citizens gave a hearty invitation to return a hearty invitation to return again. We would like to add the income for the week amounted to $121.45.-A. F.

READ THIS

sts, Relatives, and Friends:

To Famula, Nohitrea, and Frinds:
We will assure for missing person may part of the globe, beined, and for an possible, assist strenged an and children, or surpress of the conand children, or surpress of the Torouto, marked "Enquiry" on sovera Cone Dollar should be not with or case, where possible, to kelp dirty penson. In case or Perpoduction of Plas graph, 82.00 extra. (Price Cut) Officers. Soldiers and Frinds are Officers. Soldiers and Frinds

Officers, Soldiers, and Friends are quested to sasist us by looking regula-trough the Missing Column, and to not Col. Ross if able to give information o-cerning any case, always staling name a number of same.

PRELIMINARY. ANNOUNCEMENT

Canadian Thirty-Third Looking for Y Annual Congress

TO BE HELD IN TORONTO

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 31st, to THURSDAY, NOV. 5th, inclusive

SALVATION TENTS ON CAMPING GROUNDS.

(Continued from Page 9.)
As dawn was just breaking, the shrill notes of a hugle sounded out. Sleeping men sprang to their feet, others hurriedly finished their let-fers. One man said, "Boys, ean't we ters. One man said, Boys, ean't we have a hymn before we go?" and started off "Lead, Kindly Light." Good-byes were said by the grateful men, and they quickly melted into the semi-darkness for a destination we may not mention.

A Great Boon.

It is estimated that considerably over six thousand men used the tent during the week that it has been erected, and so greatly is the effort appreciated that it is nothing unappreciated that it is nothing un-insual to see a number of lads, with sleeves rolled up, washing up the cups and saucers and tidying the tent. They insist on doing it. He-fore the troops went to church on Sunday morning, several of them made a peaceful "raid" on the tent washed up everything they could find.

Many of the military officers have visited the tent during the week, and have expressed their admiration for the work and have left donations.

The last thing we heard as in the gathering twilight we left the tent was one lad remarking to another, "My, The Army's doing us fine, ain't they just; they do look after mothers' boys!"

IMPORMATION UNCENTLY WANTED.

MOYES Asymmetry of the MOYES Asymmetry of the MOYES Asymmetry of the Moyes and the present which the person who make the Moyes of the person who make the Moyes of the Moyes o months are 1701 MY MARGONYS SIGNAMS (1811). CHARLES HERRHHIPT, alias W. W. Walls, Are 12, fair hate and will be competion, conception, of the competion of control of the c

LITERATURE AND ART

OF INTEREST TO SALVATIONISTS

We are pleased to inform you that the Trade Department has been able to procure ah excellent bust of the late Commissioner Rees. This is made of fine Platere and has lately been awarded first price at the National Exhibition, as one of the finest prices of simplifying about. We so gibt to eall these at the your price of sice each, and will forward its same, securely pighted, to any address, for 100 extra. A new value, of "Morkers of the Empire," by Mrs. Bramwell Boots, has just seen received. This is a "plendid work, and we are trutted. We are pleased to inform you that the Trade Department has been